Easter Seal Story Told As Campaign Opens

Johnny Sheekherd is one of many children who has received help from Easter Seals.

Johnny started to attend the Franklin County Easter Seal Treatment Center when he was only two years old. At that time he could not sit or stand unsupported. He received physical therapy conditioning exercises at the Center and his parents initiated a home exercise program. Soon he was able to sit independently.

A year later he started pre-school classes and occupational therapy training in addition to the physical therapy training at the Center. Progress was made and Johnny started to walk with the aid of parallel bars and was able to feed himself without assistance.

When Johnny was 3½ he received new braces with a pelvic band which helped his sitting position in a chair. In occupational therapy his eye to hand coordination was good.

JOHNNY is now using a walker with his hips and knees unlocked. His physical therapy program consists of stretching exercises to loosen heel cords, strengthening exercises to help in sitting balance and gait training.

In pre-school classes Johnny is doing identification of common objects, experiencing socialization and initiating some pre-writing skills. His teacher is encouraging him to move around more on his own.

Johnny is now four years old and he is on his way. One of these days he will be an independent, well adjusted youngster — thanks to Easter Seals.

The Pickaway County Society helps support the Franklin County Center as several children from this area receive services at the Center. The local Society would like to say, "thank you" for your past contributions to Easter Seals. More handicapped children and adults can be rehabilitated if money is available to make it possible.

The campaign slogan this year is "Faith, Hope and Therapy." The handicapped of Pickaway County do have the "faith" that you will help supply the "therapy" that will give them the "hope" for the future.

The 1970 Easter Seal Campaign gets under way this week and will continue through March 29 according to Richard Plum, area campaign chairman. Plum stated that some 9,000 pieces of mail will be processed through the local post office and that the Pickaway County Easter Seal Society is again counting on the continued support of Pickaway County residents. It is only through these voluntary contributions the Society is able to supply

Ohio House Studies Stop, Frisk Bill

Measure Would Allow Police More Freedom

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Controversy is expected to warm things up in the heretofore calm Ohio House today as representatives take up consideration of a watered-down "stop and frisk" bill.

The measure, modified in committee, would allow police to pat down suspicious persons for dangerous weapons. It's expected to encounter stiff opposition.

Monday, the Senate approved a measure to set up county transit boards to operate mass transit systems and the House passed unanimously a bill to eliminate the return of persons convicted of sex crimes to court after they have been committed for psychiatric treatment.

The House bill, which now goes to the Senate, corrects an amendment the legislature inadvertently approved in 1967 that all persons convicted of sex crimes be sent back to court for consideration of probation.

Probation is not possible in sex cases and, under the new bill, persons convicted of such crimes would immediately begin serving their sentences after their psychiatric treatment ends.

The transit bill, passed 25-1 by the Senate, enables county commissioners to set up county transit boards to issue revenue bond to buy and operate mass transit systems.

The bill originally was aimed at letting Cuyahoga County take

5 Persons Feared Dead In Explosion

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Five employees of the Mobil Chemical Co. were missing and presumed dead after an explosion and fire at the firm's East Side plant in Cleveland early today.

Company officials said the four production workers and one foreman were the only persons known to have been working in the synthetic resins department where the blast occurred about 1 a.m.

Witnesses said the explosion was noticeable up to 30 blocks away and flames from the blaze were sighted several miles from the Bessemer Avenue plant. Cause of the explosion was not immediately determined.

Some 100 firemen spent about three hours bringing the flames under control and were able to keep the fire from spreading to a building containing large quantities of volatile solvents.

The plant employs 310 workers and manufactures chemical coatings and paints. The resins manufactured in the department struck by the blast are used in the production of paints.

One fireman suffered a leg injury while fighting the flames. Company spokesmen said cause of the explosion was not likely to be determined until technical experts were able to enter the damaged department and check through the debris.

Freak Accident Claims Urbana Youth

URBANA, Ohio (AP) — A freak accident Monday claimed the life of Tony Woods, 14, of Urbana. The youth was struck by a dead tree which fell across the Urbana High School basketball court as he and some other boys played an after-school game.

A companion was treated for minor injuries and released from the hospital here. The Champaign County coroner said the tree apparently fell after the ground around it thawed.

Pompidou, Nixon Talk On Mideast

WASHINGTON (AP) — French President Georges Pompidou arrived for a state visit today and was welcomed by President Nixon as head of the nation which is "our oldest friend and oldest ally in Europe."

Several thousand invited guests joined Nixon in welcoming the French chief of state in ceremonies on the White House lawn, as a helicopter brought him from an overnight stay at Camp David, Nixon's mountain retreat in nearby Maryland.

In two days of talks, Nixon said, he and Pompidou will touch on "the great problems of the world . . . We will work together for liberty and independence of all people."

A white tie dinner at the White House honors Pompidou Tuesday night, and Nixon will attend a dinner Wednesday at the French Embassy in a special show of courtesy to a visitor who faces possible demonstrations against his country's aid to Arab nations.

At the Capitol, meanwhile, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said Pom-pidou will be treated "with the full courtesy due a visiting head of state and an old ally" when he addresses a joint session of Congress Wednesday.

In a last-minute switch of plans, Nixon dispatched Vice President Spiro T. Agnew to greet Pompidou at Andrews Air Force Base, Md. Meanwhile, demonstrators wearing buttons that declared "Long Live France; Down with Pompidou" inveighed against what speakers at a Jewish-sponsored Washington rally described as a pro-

Arab French policy in the Middle East.

Specifically, the speakers complained of the French sale of jet fighters to Libya while refusing to deliver 50 aircraft already paid for by Israel.

The possibility of continued demonstrations, coupled with his expected snubbing by mayors of New York and Chicago later in his visit and a partial boycott of his address to a joint session of Congress Wednesday worries U.S. diplomats.

Pompidou was sufficiently prepared that not everything will be milk and honey during

Vietnam War Emphasis Turns To Laos Air Strikes

SAIGON (AP) — The United States is waging the Vietnam war's most concentrated B52 bombing campaign in eastern Laos, informed sources said today.

Sources estimated that more than 500 sorties—a sortie is one flight by one bomber—have been flown over the Ho Chi Minh trail so far this month in an effort to slow the movement of North Vietnamese war supplies into South Vietnam.

At the beginning of the month, the sources continued, a target selection panel shifted the emphasis of B52 raids from South Vietnam to North Vietnamese supply depots just across the border in Laos.

"There are now better targets in Laos and more of them there," said one source. "If they are stopped there, they don't get into South Vietnam."

The source said the raids were aimed at "a massive storage area" along the lower half of the Ho Chi Minh trail just across from the A Shau Valley in northern South Vietnam.

There has been no firm assessment of the bombers' effectiveness. But U.S. sources say there has been a "fair number of secondary explosions" indicating direct hits on ammunition and fuel stores.

About 30 bombers, in the eight consecutive day of heavy strikes in eastern Laos, dropped nearly 900 tons of explosives today.

The U.S. Command does not admit to air activity in Laos and reported only two B52 missions in South Vietnam. It said 10 bombers attacked North Vietnamese base camps in the central highlands.

Battlefield action in South Vietnam was generally light and scattered.

Doctor Says Many Hospital Patients Should Be Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — A family doctor from North Carolina testified today that about 50 per cent of the people admitted to hospitals don't need to be.

"These patients could receive as good, or perhaps better—certainly less expensive—health and medical care by means other than by lying horizontal in a hospital bed," said Dr. Amos Johnson of Garland, N.C., a former president of the American Academy of General Practice.

Johnson's testimony was prepared for the Senate antitrust subcommittee, opening hearings on the high cost of hospitalization.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., the chairman, said he hoped to find ways in which more competition could bring down hospital prices, or at least prevent further increases.

Johnson blamed unnecessary hospital admissions on the health insurance system—and also on physicians who "find it much more convenient, time-saving and financially rewarding to see patients on an in-hospital basis."

He said medical education has for 20 to 30 years conditioned students to believe that the highest quality of care can be provided only if a patient is hospitalized.

"Well trained family physicians can comfortably and effectively care for 85 per cent of the usual ordinary illnesses that beset mankind," Johnson said. "And they can largely do this in the office, in the clinic, in the home or in the out-patient department, and at a cost most patients can afford."

But Johnson said only 15 per cent of medical school graduates now are trained as general practitioners, with the other 85 per cent becoming specialists. He said the ratio should be reversed.

Dr. Paul Patterson of Albany, N.Y., Medical College said genetic diseases are responsible for 25 per cent of admissions to hospitals and institutions for the handicapped—often at a "home destroying cost."

Patterson said until a system of health insurance "is finally adopted nationally," the states should help provide care for such chronically ill persons.

The dead: TOLEDO — Viva Mae Dankert, 39, of Toledo, in a two-car collision on Toledo's North Side.

SIDNEY — An unidentified man was killed when his automobile, chased by Ohio Highway Patrol officers and reported stolen in Michigan, crashed into a service station after missing a curve during the chase, early Tuesday.

WAUSEON — Juan Cruz, 25, of near Delta, when an automobile in which he was a passenger collided with a tank truck on Ohio 2 near Wauseon Monday night.

COLUMBUS — Two Columbus men died Monday of injuries received in separate accidents. They were Fred R. Ramey, 42, hurt in a collision on the Franklin-Fairfield County line, and Ronald Cline, 23, hurt when his car skidded into a utility pole in Columbus.

New Service Director Hired For Circleville

ATWOOD P. JONES

Mayor Richard L. Gerhardt today announced the appointment of Atwood P. "Woody" Jones as director of public service.

He is a graduate of Ohio University's College of Engineering and is presently employed by the city of Chillicothe as the assistant city engineer, a position he has held since 1966.

Prior to going to Chillicothe he worked with the Ohio Highway Department.

Jones is a member of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers, American Public Works Association, the Lions Club, the Jaycees and the First Presbyterian Church.

THE new Service Director and his wife Diana have one child, Andy age one and one half (1½). He will assume his new duties on March 1.

Jones will receive a salary of $11,900. An ordinance approved by City Council at its Feb. 17 meeting provides for a top salary of $12,700 for the service director providing he has a state engineer's license.

A portion of his salary is being paid by the Public Utilities fund since his services will be also used by the water and sewer departments.

Pastore Against ABM Expansion

WASHINGTON (AP) — At least one senator has expressed opposition to expansion of the Safeguard missile defense system even before administration proposals for new ABM sites in Missouri and Wyoming are made official by Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird.

"I'm reluctant at this time to expand on the Safeguard that was already authorized," Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., said Monday. "We should give ourselves a chance for a good evaluation. I feel it should be expanded first."

Pastore's opposition to expansion of the Safeguard until the antiballistic missile system is proved workable at authorized sites in Montana and North Dakota came on the eve of Laird's expected appeal today for ABM installations at Whiteman Air Force Base, Mo., and Warren Air Force Base, Wyo.

Cairo Press Still Defiant Over Incident

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Condemnation of Arab terrorism mounted today in the wake of the ambush of a busload of American Christians in Israel but the Cairo press was defiant.

A State Department spokesman said the U.S. government was shocked. Premier Golda Meir of Israel denounced Arab governments for financing and sheltering Palestinian guerrillas "lacking all conscience and respect for human life."

The Swiss and West German governments also condemned Arab terrorists, but their protests were a result of the crash Saturday of a Swissair jet bound for Tel Aviv in which 47 persons were killed. Arab guerrillas are believed to have set off an explosion that caused the crash.

The busload of American pilgrims was attacked Monday north of Hebron in Israeli-occupied Jordan. The wife of a Baptist minister, Barbara Ertle, 31, of Grandville, Mich., was killed, and two Americans and an Israeli guide were wounded. Mrs. Ertle's husband, Theodor, was sitting next to her but escaped injury.

The wounded women were Tabbea Damico, 55, Ventnor, N.J., and Lucille Draper, Buffalo, N.Y. Both were injured slightly in the leg by bullets.

Mrs. Ertle and the two wounded women were sitting on the right side of the bus when a sudden burst of fire came from that side of the road.

Israeli troops began a massive search of the rocky hills in the area.

Hebron is a center of Arab agitation on the Jordan River's West Bank. Terrorists ambushed a bus traveling from Beersheba to Hebron last year and killed one American passenger.

Arab guerrillas have warned foreigners to stay out of occupied territories and have advised Christians not to make pilgrimages to Israel because "we are at war."

Eye Broader Lunch Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate focused today on more new proposals to broaden the scope of a school lunch bill after voting to authorize the federal government to pay the full cost of bringing free or reduced-price lunches to needy school children.

Among the series of amendments to be offered during floor debate is one by Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., making eligible for school lunches all children from families of four with $4,000 or less annual income.

Javits' amendment provides for equivalent adjustments for different size families. Under the current program, individual school principals determine eligibility by applying widely varying standards.

Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., chairman of the special Senate hunger committee, won 38 to 32 approval Monday of the amendment stepping up federal participation in the program.

The 100 per cent financing feature overrode the Senate Agriculture Committee, which had written into the measure authorization for the federal government to pay 80 per cent of the cost.

Westfall OKs Vocational Joint Plan

The Westfall Board of Education Monday approved a resolution to participate in the proposed joint Ross-Pickaway Vocational School.

The action was reached following a public meeting Monday held to determine interest of the district in the jointure. Most of the estimated 125 persons attending the meeting favored joining the Ross-Pickaway plan.

Two other alternatives presented at the meeting were for the district to take no action and wait to be assigned by the state board of education to a district or to enter into a contract agreement with the Southwest Vocational School District of Franklin County.

In other action the board approved the attendance of football coach William Vance to the football clinic at Kent State University March 6-7.

Woman Says 'Pill' Hearings Brought Panic

WASHINGTON (AP) — A woman birth control specialist told a Senate subcommittee today that its hearings into the safety of the pill had created international panic and prompted a wave of unwanted pregnancies.

Dr. Elizabeth B. Connell of Columbia University said a stepup in pregnancies "strikes profound fear in the hearts of those who deal daily with women and population problems."

She also criticized some of the conclusions reached by witnesses at hearings last month by the Senate monopoly subcommittee. Testimony then linked the pill to scores of suspected side effects, including cancer, fatal blood clotting, diabetes and heart trouble.

"From a purely scientific point of view, much of the information displayed thus far can be likened to the relationship between a drunken man and a lightpost—more for support than for illumination," she said.

Dr. Connell, a mother of six and the first woman to testify at the hearings, said even the most violent of critics of the pill had to concede his data was limited and that many of his conclusions were based on unsupported speculation.

She commented in testimony prepared for delivery before the panel headed by Democrat Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin.

The subcommittee is resuming for two days hearings on the pill. Dr. Connell was invited to testify at the insistence of Republican members of the subcommittee. Some of the GOP members have said the hearings and others in a three-year probe by Nelson of drug industry pricing and practices have been biased against the industry.

Dr. Connell, associate professor of obstetrics and gynecology at Columbia and director of research and development for its International Institute for the Study of Human Reproduction, said:

"We are just beginning to see the first of the pregnancies of women who panicked in January, stopped their pills, and did not seek or use another means of birth control."

"These women will not be here to testify," she went on, "but they now bear within their bodies mute testimony to the effectiveness of induced fear."

Adding that it was "axiomat-

Johnny Shekherd is one of many children who have received help from Easter Seals.

Johnny started to attend the Franklin County Easter Seal Treatment Center when he was only two years old. At that time he could not sit or stand unsupported. He received physical therapy conditioning exercises at the Center and his parents initiated a home exercise program. Soon he was able to sit independently.

A year later he started pre-school classes and occupational therapy training in addition to the physical therapy training at the Center. Progress was made and Johnny started to walk between parallel bars and was able to feed himself without assistance.

When Johnny was 3½ he received new braces with a pelvic band which helped his sitting position in a chair. In occupational therapy his eye to hand coordination was good.

JOHNNY is now using a walker with his hips and knees unlocked. His physical therapy program consists of stretching exercises to loosen heel cords, strengthening exercises to help in sitting balance and gait training.

In pre-school classes Johnny is doing identification of common objects, experiencing socialization and initiating some pre-writing skills. His teacher is encouraging him to move around more on his own.

Johnny is now four years old and he is on his way. One of these days he will be an independent, well adjusted youngster—thanks to Easter Seals.

The Pickaway County Society helps support the Franklin County Center as several children from this area receive services at the Center. The local Society would like to say, "thank you" for your past contributions to Easter Seals. More handicapped children and adults can be rehabilitated if money is available to make it possible.

The campaign slogan this year is "Faith, Hope and Therapy." The handicapped of Pickaway County do have the "faith" that you will help supply the "therapy" that will give them the "hope" for the future.

The 1970 Easter Seal Campaign gets under way this week and will continue through March 29 according to Richard Plum, area campaign chairman. Plum stated that some 9,000 pieces of mail will be processed through the local post office and that the Pickaway County Easter Seal Society is again counting on the continued support of Pickaway County residents. It is only through these voluntary contributions the Society is able to supply

Westfall OKs Vocational Joint Plan

The Westfall Board of Education Monday approved a resolution to participate in the proposed joint Ross-Pickaway Vocational School.

The action was reached following a public meeting Monday held to determine interest of the district in the project. Most of the estimated 125 persons attending the meeting favored joining the Ross-Pickaway plan.

Two other alternatives presented at the meeting were for the district to take no action and wait to be assigned by the state board of education to a district or to enter into a contract agreement with the Southwest Vocational School District of Franklin County.

In other action the board approved the attendance of football coach William Vance to the football clinic at Kent State University March 6-7.

HARRISON SALISBURY

Salisbury spent many years in Russia as foreign correspondent first for UP then for the Times. The lecture is one of the Kennedy Lecturer series, established by the Ohio University in 1962 to bring the college some of the most distinguished persons of our times.

Salisbury will address the public at 8:30 p.m. March 3 in Bennett Hall Auditorium. Tickets for the performance are available at the Student Service Office, Bennett Hall, Ohio University - Chillicothe. OU students will be admitted free.

Senate Demos Set Battle Lines Over HEW Funding

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats are drawing the battle lines for a new confrontation with the White House over spending for education and health.

This time there is an added ingredient: a dispute over civil rights and school desegregation policies.

A Senate appropriations subcommittee headed by Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., meets today to decide what to do about a $19.4 billion appropriation—which already faces a renewed veto warning.

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Robert H. Finch said he would advocate a veto—the fate of an earlier, $19.7 billion appropriation—unless the Senate makes or authorizes substantial spending cuts.

But Magnuson said it is possible the veto-threatened House version of the bill will quickly be cleared by the Senate Appropriations Committee and sent to the floor as it stands now.

That would leave it to the full Senate to change or accept the House bill, and it could speed the whole process considerably.

Magnuson said he would be inclined to favor acceptance of the House terms, at least on the appropriations issue, which would speed the bill to the White House.

The House on Feb. 19 passed a bill exceeding by $324 million the sum President Nixon said he would accept.

Finch wrote Magnuson that he would recommend another veto unless the spending total is cut, or the Senate agrees to give the President discretion over whether to spend the money.

Mrs. Meir met with envoys from 18 nations in Jerusalem, then told the Knesset, Israel's parliament, that effective steps must be taken against terrorist organizations "and against those Arab countries from which they come."

In a voice trembling with emotion she told the lawmakers Israel "will do its duty" to protect its air routes. She did not say what steps she planned.

Contractors Elect Officers For 1970

The Pickaway County Contractors' Assn. held its election of officers at its annual dinner meeting Feb. 19 at Wardell's Party Home.

The officers for 1970 are: Herbert L. Hammel, 513 S. Court St., president; Robert B. Kenworthy, 317 E. Main St., vice president; Franklin D. Crites, 180 Crites Road, secretary; Ronald E. Nau, 372 E. Main St., treasurer; James E. Peters, 705 E. Mound St., director, one year; Hugh A. Neff, Route 2, director, two years; Russell Toole, Ashville, director three years; John C. Taylor, 448 Brown St., director, three years.

Other directors whose terms have not expired are: Robert M. Johnson, 585 Woodland Ave.; James Lovensheimer, 465 Edwards Road; Richard C. Shaw, 568 N. Pickaway St.; Cecil Stauffer, Route 4; Burl Wiggins, 583 Northridge Road.

During the business session, plans were coordinated with Ralph Ankrom, Crites Road, director of Circleville Youth Baseball Program Inc., for assistance by the contractors with the installation of new ball diamond lighting in Ted Lewis Park.

Ankrom said that with the help of Clarence Wardell's crane and the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company the old poles were removed on Valentine's Day after which Sturm and Dillard furnished and delivered sand to fill the holes.

He said that eight new 80-foot poles had been ordered and that it was hoped that assembly of the equipment on the poles and erection of the completed assembly could be accomplished as soon as weather permits.

Three On Charges Of Destruction

A Columbus man is in Pickaway County jail on charges of malicious destruction of property and two juvenile boys are in custody in a second case of malicious destruction in Pickaway County.

Rosensteel had broken the front door and was in the process of smashing the rear door when he was apprehended. He was in a state of intoxication when taken into custody by Deputy Don Thompson.

A 14-year old Orient boy is in county jail and another juvenile boy is in the custody of his parents on malicious destruction charges.

The boys were taken into custody after breaking windows, light fixtures and smashing a television at a dwelling belonging to Earl Puckett, of Derby.

Hamilton Firm Hit By Walkout

his visit. Though the French head of state is a sophisticated statesman, some American diplomats expressed concern he might become offended if the demonstrations are too noisy.

Nixon obviously wanted to offer as many signs as possible to convince Pompidou he is indeed the honored guest of this country.

White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said arrangements had been made "in accord with the friendship that exists between the two countries."

Nixon also will attend the formal dinner given by Pompidou at the French Embassy Wednesday night, a gesture the President has not normally made for other visiting heads of state.

Diplomatic sources said the first of two scheduled meetings between the two heads of state would follow no fixed agenda. Nixon was reported ready to discuss every question raised by his guest.

The Middle East doubtless will be the No. 1 issue the two leaders will discuss. Nixon, observers said, will make no attempt to change the French position on the Middle East, which differs considerably from that of the United States. But he may propose coordinating French and American efforts to find a compromise peace formula acceptable to both sides in the dispute.

Nixon will find in Pompidou a cooperative partner, French sources said.

In an interview with the magazine U.S. News & World Report released to coincide with Pompidou's arrival, the French president is quoted as saying he hopes the talks will bring the two nations closer together.

"People Who Go To Church

Are All Hypocrites Anyway"

Sometimes people will justify their not attending church by claiming that churchgoers are insincere.

And it is probably true that some people go to church for questionable reasons — because they think it's the "social thing to do", because they want to be seen, or because they want to cover up for their bad behavior outside of church.

People may wish to make such uses of the church, but the church is meant to serve another purpose: to provide people with a place to worship and give witness to their faith.

You should go to church . . . and you should go there for this higher purpose, regardless of why other persons may go there.

Senate Demos Set Battle Lines Over HEW Funding

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats are drawing the battle lines for a new confrontation with the White House over spending for education and health.

This time there is an added ingredient: a dispute over civil rights and school desegregation policies.

A Senate appropriations subcommittee headed by Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., meets today to decide what to do about a $19.4 billion appropriation—which already faces a renewed veto warning.

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Robert H. Finch said he would advocate a veto—the fate of an earlier, $19.7 billion appropriation—unless the Senate makes or authorizes substantial spending cuts.

But Magnuson said it is possible the veto-threatened House version of the bill will quickly be cleared by the Senate Appropriations Committee and sent to the floor as it stands now.

That would leave it to the full Senate to change or accept the House bill, and it could speed the whole process considerably.

Magnuson said he would be inclined to favor acceptance of the House terms, at least on the appropriations issue, which would speed the bill to the White House.

The House on Feb. 19 passed a bill exceeding by $324 million the sum President Nixon said he would accept.

Finch wrote Magnuson that he would recommend another veto unless the spending total is cut, or the Senate agrees to give the President discretion over whether to spend the money.

Contractors Elect Officers For 1970

The Pickaway County Contractors' Assn. held its election of officers at its annual dinner meeting Feb. 19 at Wardell's Party Home.

The officers for 1970 are: Herbert L. Hammel, 513 S. Court St., president; Robert B. Kenworthy, 317 E. Main St., vice president; Franklin D. Crites, 180 Crites Road, secretary; Ronald E. Nau, 372 E. Main St., treasurer; James E. Peters, 705 E. Mound St., director, one year; Hugh A. Neff, Route 2, director, two years; Russell Toole, Ashville, director three years; John C. Taylor, 448 Brown St., director, three years.

Other directors whose terms have not expired are: Robert M. Johnson, 585 Woodland Ave.; James Lovensheimer, 465 Edwards Road; Richard C. Shaw, 508 N. Pickaway St.; Cecil Stauffer, Route 4; Burl Wiggins, 583 Northridge Road.

During the business session, plans were coordinated with Ralph Ankrom, Crites Road, director of Circleville Youth Baseball Program Inc., for assistance by the contractors with the installation of new ball diamond lighting in Ted Lewis Park.

Ankrom said that with the help of Clarence Wardell's crane and the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company the old poles were removed on Valentine's Day after which Sturm and Dillard furnished and delivered sand to fill the holes.

He said that eight new 80-foot poles had been ordered and that it was hoped that assembly of the equipment on the poles and erection of the completed assembly could be accomplished as soon as weather permits.

Sheriff Arrests Three On Charges Of Destruction

A Columbus man is in Pickaway County jail on charges of malicious destruction of property and two juvenile boys are in custody in a second case of malicious destruction in Pickaway County.

Billy Raymond Rosensteel 32, of Columbus was arrested at the residence of Harley Mace on the Egypt Pike, New Holland at 2 a.m. Tuesday.

Rosensteel had broken the front door and was in the process of smashing the rear door when he was apprehended. He was in a state of intoxication when taken into custody by Deputy Don Thompson.

A 14-year old Orient boy is in county jail and another juvenile boy is in the custody of his parents on malicious destruction charges.

The boys were taken into custody after breaking windows, light fixtures and smashing a television at a dwelling belonging to Earl Puckett, of Derby.

Hamilton Firm Hit By Walkout

HAMILTON Ohio (AP) — Approximately 300 employees of the Beckett Paper Co. of Hamilton went on strike last night in a contract dispute.

The employees are members of Local 968 of the United Paperworkers and Papermakers Union (AFL-CIO). Contract negotiations have been under way since early in January but the union rejected the latest company proposal last Saturday.

Picketing was started at the plant after the strike started but there were no disturbances.

Pompidou . . .

(Continued from Page 1) his visit. Though the French head of state is a sophisticated statesman, some American diplomats expressed concern he might become offended if the demonstrations are too noisy.

Nixon obviously wanted to offer as many signs as possible to convince Pompidou he is indeed the honored guest of this country.

White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said arrangements had been made "in accordance with the friendship that exists between the two countries."

Nixon also will attend the formal dinner given by Pompidou at the French Embassy Wednesday night, a gesture the President has not normally made for other visiting heads of state.

Diplomatic sources said the first of two scheduled meetings between the two heads of state would follow no fixed agenda. Nixon was reported ready to discuss every question raised by his guest.

The Middle East doubtless will be the No. 1 issue the two leaders will discuss. Nixon, observers said, will make no attempt to change the French position on the Middle East, which differs considerably from that of the United States. But he may propose coordinating French and American efforts to find a compromise peace formula acceptable to both sides in the dispute.

Nixon will find in Pompidou a cooperative partner, French sources said.

In an interview with the magazine U.S. News & World Report released to coincide with Pompidou's arrival, the French president is quoted as saying he hopes the talks will bring the two nations closer together.

Home Buyer Takes Brunt Of Higher Costs And Inflation

Editor's Note: Tight money is invisible, yet it's having a profound effect on housing cost. This article, the second of five from the AP Special Assignment Team, probes the why and how of the money squeeze.

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer

TUSTIN, Calif. (AP) — Walk into a $30,495 four-bedroom home at Tustin Meadows and you'll see vaulted ceilings in the living room and parks through the windows—hallmarks of California living.

What you won't see is $3,265 that tight money has added to the price of the house—but it's there, too, and it's the hallmark of high interest rates and money scarcity.

The effects of tight money are everywhere in the housing field: They increased the builder's costs, boost monthly payments if the buyer can find a mortgage, and make it harder to sell a house.

Virtually all these tight money costs come home to roost on the buyer of a house. Robert H. Grant, developer of 900-home Tustin Meadows, located in Tustin, Calif., between Disneyland and the Western White House, outlined how tight money added $3,265 on to the price.

On the house, he has to give eight points to the lender to get a government-insured mortgage for the buyer. Each point is 1 per cent of the mortgage, so that cost alone could reach $2,400.

The rate of interest for construction loans has gone from 5 per cent to 10 per cent for Grant. On the $30,495 home, that means an additional cost of $565.

Holding land for that house during the year of acquiring, planning and building costs $300 more, said Grant, because land loans are 10 per cent instead of the former 6 per cent.

Thus, $3,265 of the price is directly attributable to the higher costs of tight money.

A study by the House Banking Committee released this month found that half of all American families could not afford payments on a $20,000 mortgage. "Virtually all moderate income families have been priced out of the housing market," said committee chairman Wright Patman, D-Tex.

Viewed another way, a family taking on a $20,000, 25-year mortgage would pay $42,418.37 over the life of the loan if the interest rate were 7 per cent. But if they take the same loan at 9 per cent, they'll pay $50,399.41—a difference of $7,981.04.

What is it that makes money for buildings and mortgages so scarce?

Basically, the Federal Reserve Board has restricted the money supply as a means of fighting inflation. The theory is that if less money is available, the demands for goods and services will decline and prices will tend to stabilize.

But the demand has not declined. Business and industry wants money for expansion. Consumers want it for credit purchases. Home buyers want it for mortgages. As competition for loans has sharpened, interest rates have soared.

Since home mortgages traditionally pay the lender a lower rate of return than most other types of loans, less and less money has been going into home mortgages.

Another factor is involved, too. Basically, the money for home mortgages comes from a pool of capital made up mostly of America's savings—bank and savings and loan association deposits, for example.

But this pool of capital has been shrinking. Instead of putting their savings in bank deposits earning perhaps 5 per cent, more and more people are putting the savings in other investments, like short-term government securities, which have climbed recently to 8 per cent interest and higher but are just as safe.

As a result of these economic pressures, the home buyer must pay higher interest rates on his mortgage. And to get the loan, he must make a bigger down payment.

Many lenders say they can still make 20 per cent down payment conventional loans—but some report down payment requirements are inching toward 25 or 30 per cent.

Federal Housing Administration-guaranteed loans on homes selling for more than $20,000 still require a down payment of $950 plus 25 per cent of the excess of the purchase price over $20,000. Thus, a $30,000 house would require a down payment of $3,150, or just under 12 per cent.

In many states, home mortgages have run up against usury ceilings in state law. In early 1969, for example, mortgage money in Maryland virtually disappeared because state law allowed no more than 6 per cent interest. Money flowed again when the limit was raised to 8 per cent—but dried up once more when the interest rise bumped into that ceiling.

Another legal interest ceiling that has dried up money is the federal limit on interest for loans guaranteed by FHA and VA.

During most of 1969, lenders making an FHA or VA loan could not charge more than 7½ per cent interest. This was below market conditions, so lenders charged points as incentive to make the loan.

The seller is required to pay these points. Each point equals a one-time fee of 1 per cent of the mortgage.

To entice more money into FHA and VA loans, the government boosted the interest ceiling to 8½ per cent in January.

The government has taken other steps to try to pump more money into home mortgages.

The privately incorporated Federal National Mortgage Association, nicknamed Fannie Mae, and the government-operated Government National Mortgage Association—Ginnie Mae—already try to keep money pumped into the mortgage field by purchasing batches of mortgages from lending institutions. This gives lenders new funds to put into mortgages.

Federal regulatory agencies have also tried to lure money into mortgage markets by raising the interest rates which banks, and savings and loans can pay depositors. This, they hope, would bring more money to these institutions for mortgage use.

Next: Why do houses cost so much?

have the effect of only shuffling around the existing supply of money. The Federal Reserve System, through its discount and reserve policies, controls the volume of the money supply. And the Federal Reserve Board has believed that tight money is necessary to stifle inflation.

There is speculation that the Federal Reserve Board will loosen money under its new chairman, Arthur M. Burns. Any easing would provide some degree of help to housing. But if a loosening of money and drop in interest comes, it would almost certainly be far more gradual than has been the interest climb of recent months.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren Parents — Teen-Agers Aren't Infants

DEAR ABBY: I am nearly 15 years old and my parents are all the time giving me big long lectures on what to do and what not to do with my boyfriend. Well, I know enough not to get into any trouble, but what bugs me is when my mother says I shouldn't give a boy a "serious kiss" because it's unsanitary!

I say, "How about you and Dad? YOU kiss, don't you?" Then she says, "Yes, but we are IMMUNE to each other."

Well, they haven't always been immune, have they?

Please answer this in your column. My Mom thinks I am a dumb kid.

DEAR NOT: There are better reasons for avoiding the "mouth-to-mouth resuscitation-type" kiss at your age. I think your Mom is giving you a kindergarten lecture when a baccalaureate sermon would be more appropriate.

DEAR ABBY: I'm sure this will sound like one of your more strange letters, but it's true. I wish my husband and his girl friend would make up!

Something evidently happened between them and now he is so miserable, he's practically sick. In turn, he is making me sick as well.

When my husband is happy with her, he is happy at home and is so much easier to get along with. I suppose he treats me and the children better out of a guilty conscience, but at least we're treated with consideration and generosity, so it doesn't matter why.

Don't get me wrong. I most certainly do not approve of my husband's having a girl friend, but after all these years, there is nothing I can do about it, and I do not intend to give up all we have accumulated together and let her reap the rewards.

I love him in spite of her. He is all I've ever had and ever want, but somehow he must need her, too. I don't know what is in store for all of us, her husband included, the poor boob. He can't seem to put a stop to it either.

In the meantime, Abby, it's silly, isn't it? Wanting your husband to make up with his girl friend. What can I do?

UNDERSTANDING WIFE
DEAR WIFE: It strikes me that perhaps you're being a little too "understanding". But you know your husband better than I do, so if you are willing to settle for half a loaf, then bide your time, pray for the breaks, and wait for the weather to change. And lotsa luck.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were invited to the home of a relative for supper. Just before leaving our house, she called and asked if we would please stop at the store and pick up a "few items."

We said we would be glad to, and we did. The items cost us $7.00. All we had was $11 to last us until payday, which was a week away, and that person knew we were short on funds when she asked us.

We didn't want to embarrass anybody, so we didn't say anything. How would you have handled the situation?

BROKE
DEAR BROKE: Simple. As I handed over the "items," I would have presented the receipt, with a request for my money.

DEAR ABBY: Re "hippies" My son was a hippie. He would not wash, shave, or have a haircut. If allowed, he would wear his clothes until they fell off him. He performed natural functions in public that are best done in private. If thwarted, he demonstrated with behavior most obnoxious until his wishes were partly met or some other recompense was made.

I say, "was" because since his first birthday he has been giving up these bad habits.

Home Buyer Takes Brunt Of Higher Costs And Inflation

Circleville, Ohio

Editor's Note: Tight money is invisible, yet it's having a profound effect on housing costs. This article, the second of five from the AP Special Assignment Team, probes the why and how of the money squeeze.

TUSTIN, Calif. (AP) — Walk into a $30,495 four-bedroom home at Tustin Meadows and you'll see vaulted ceilings in the living room and parks through the windows—hallmarks of California living.

What you won't see is $3,265 that tight money has added to the price of the house—but it's there, too, and it's the hallmark of high interest rates and money scarcity.

The effects of tight money are everywhere in the housing field: They increased the builder's costs, boost monthly payments if the buyer can find a mortgage, and make it harder to sell a house.

Virtually all these tight money costs come home to roost on the buyer of a house. Robert H. Grant, developer of 900-home Tustin Meadows, located in Tustin, Calif., between Disneyland and the Western White House, outlined how tight money added $3,265 on to the price.

On the house, he has to give eight points to the lender to get a government-insured mortgage for the buyer. Each point is 1 per cent of the mortgage, so that cost alone could reach $2,400. The rate of interest for construction loans has gone from 5 per cent to 10 per cent for Grant. On the $30,495 home, that means an additional cost of $565.

Holding land for that house during the year of acquiring, planning and building costs $300 more, said Grant, because land loans are 10 per cent instead of the former 6 per cent.

Thus, $3,265 of the price is directly attributable to the higher costs of tight money.

A study by the House Banking Committee released this month found that half of all American families could not afford payments on a $20,000 mortgage. "Virtually all moderate income families have been priced out of the housing market," said committee chairman Wright Patman, D-Tex.

Basically, the Federal Reserve Board has restricted the money supply as a means of fighting inflation. The theory is that if less money is available, the demands for goods and services will decline and prices will tend to stabilize.

Federal Housing Administra-

In many states, home mortgages have run up against usury ceilings in state law. In early 1969, for example, mortgage money in Maryland virtually disappeared because state law allowed no more than 6 per cent interest. Money flowed again when the limit was raised to 8 per cent—but dried up once more when the interest rate bumped into that ceiling.

Don't get me wrong. I most certainly do not approve of my husband's having a girl friend, but after all these years, there is nothing I can do about it, and I do not intend to give up all we have accumulated together and let her reap the rewards.

I love him in spite of her. He is all I've ever had and ever want, but somehow he must need her, too. I don't know what is in store for all of us, her husband included, the poor boob. He can't seem to put a stop to it either.

In the meantime, Abby, it's silly, isn't it? Wanting your husband to make up with his girl friend. What can I do?

UNDERSTANDING WIFE
DEAR WIFE: It strikes me that perhaps you're being a little too "understanding". But you know your husband better than I do, so if you are willing to settle for half a loaf, then bide your time, pray for the breaks, and wait for the weather to change. And lotsa luck.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were invited to the home of a relative for supper. Just before leaving our house, she called and asked if we would please stop at the store and pick up a "few items."

We said we would be glad to, and we did. The items cost us $7.00. All we had was $11 to last us until payday, which was a week away, and that person knew we were short on funds when she asked us.

We didn't want to embarrass anybody, so we didn't say anything. How would you have handled the situation?

BROKE
DEAR BROKE: Simple. As I handed over the "items," I would have presented the receipt, with a request for my money.

DEAR ABBY: Re "hippies" My son was a hippie. He would not wash, shave, or have a haircut. If allowed, he would wear his clothes until they fell off him. He performed natural functions in public that are best done in private. If thwarted, he demonstrated with behavior most obnoxious until his wishes were partly met or some other recompense was made.

I say, "was" because since his first birthday he has been giving up these bad habits.

A Pro At Work

A prime example of the intransigence of political bureaucracy has been provided the taxpayers of New York City by their mayor, John Lindsay. By itself, perhaps it will mean little to the average New Yorker, but the example stands as a major reason why government budgets seem able to travel only in one direction.

In an effort to bring divergent political factions into his administration, the mayor appointed three deputy mayors. The city council began to get a bit uneasy about the cost when the third deputy was appointed.

The council president balked when the council was presented the proposed budget for the latest deputy and his accoutrements: $535,000 a year, commenting that was a lot of money "at a time when the city budget is in serious trouble."

Council eventually was persuaded to go along with his honor, but there must be some residents of the big city who are holding their breath for still more political shoes to drop into the pot.

Business Adapts

Mergers and acquisitions always are a part of the business scene, but recent years have seen more such activities than usual, with 1968 and 1969 the big years for acquisitions. Could inflation, lower profit ratios and rising costs reverse this trend?

Some business analysts think so, and point to moves by many companies to spin-off unprofitable or unwanted divisions or product lines. General Electric Co. publishes, for a price, a list of its patents which are available for exploitation by others.

Not always are the cast-off products losers. Some do not fit into the company's basic lines and require too much special attention for manufacturing and marketing. Others may be unprofitable for a large company, but money-makers for smaller, more specialized concerns.

Even among the losers are those which, given different management and a new approach, can become winners. Corporate divestitures probably will not approach the acquisition record, but they are a vibrant part of the business community's ability to adapt to changing economic conditions.

Stylists Challenge Males

While the ladies seem to be having some form of internecine warfare over whether the new style for skirts should be up, down, or somewhere in between, men will be involved in a few choice discussions, too — that is, if they pay attention to the fashion houses.

White shirts are about as far from the scene this year as it is possible to go. Which figures, considering that most men are well stocked with white shirts and little else.

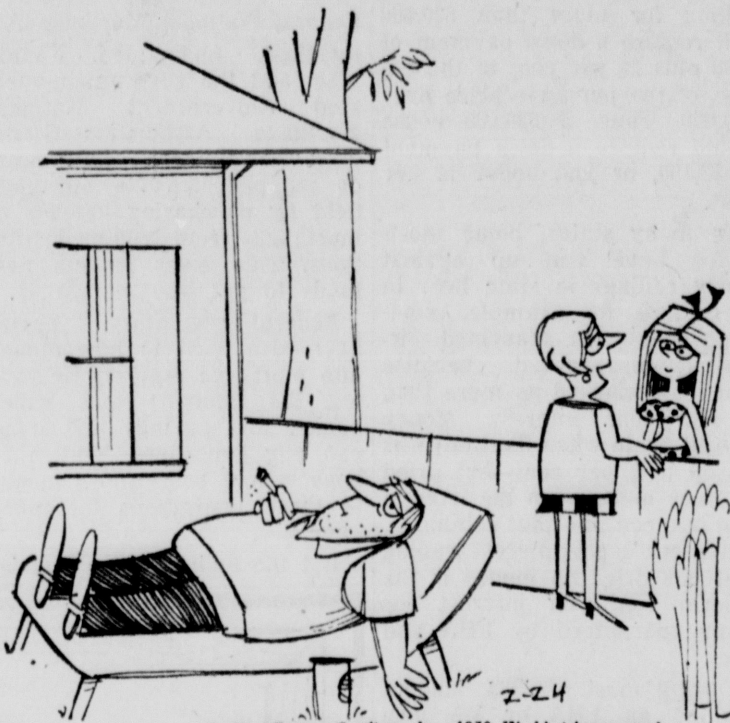

Stripes are in, the broader and brighter the better. So are checks and a mass of indefinable splotchy things. Neckties frequently are abandoned in favor of ascots and other neck adornments, but when worn are of a size which more nearly resembles a bib. Great things to eat spaghetti in.

For those who prefer not to look in a mirror, there are even lacy shirts somewhat resembling a cross between a Thomas Jefferson original and a Johnny Cash special. Ben Franklin would enjoy the scene enormously.

French cuffs, of course, are out — for no better reason than they were in a few seasons ago. Barrel cuffs with a multitude of buttons are available for those with sufficient time to kill. As for trousers — well, that requires a separate discussion after fortification with several cups of good strong coffee or whatever.

"Would you mind flirting with my husband just enough to make him shave and dress up a little?"

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

BOB HOPE knows an enterprising couple who have produced twenty-two offspring! After the nineteenth, in fact, they ran out of new names, so the three oldest and the three youngest have the same names. That's one house where there's a certain amount of confusion — especially when fourteen of the kids try to go out of the front door at the same time.

What will end this rash of nudity that is turning so much of the theatre and motion picture world into a cross between a men's stag show and a medical clinic? James Edward has an interesting theory on what will bring back clothing to the entertainment industry: Unions! "Once the costume designers band together and order a producer to buy clothes for his cast, whether they are used or not," he reckons, "some entrepreneur is going to say, 'By golly, if I'm paying for costumes, I damn well want to see them.'" By that time, too, producers may discover that it's even harder to find beautiful bodies than it is to find beautiful scripts.

An angry boss summoned his assistant accountant to his sanctum, and thundered, "You lied to me! You didn't show up yesterday because you told me you had to bury your mother-in-law and ten minutes ago I met her on the avenue." "You misunderstood me, Boss," pleaded the underling. "I didn't say she was dead; I merely told you I'd like to go to her funeral."

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

The forces at work for good in large and small communities all over this country are amazing evidence that people really care. They combine their energies in parent-teacher associations, they enlist volunteers for hospitals, they beautify the streets with trees and shrubs and solicit funds for many causes.

These forces exert so much pressure that they cannot be denied when once they have been organized, I have spoken to large audiences and have been amazed by the creativity and ingenuity of women's organizations in politics, in community health, and in cultural development. They probably have been most powerful in directing educators to the special needs of their children in schools and universities.

It is with utter dismay and despair, therefore, that I try to explain how these same forces can be so ineffective in cleansing the air we breathe of the filth and pollution that continue to contaminate our lungs. Factories, electrical plants, and garbage disposal systems pour thousands of tons of poisonous gases into the air that eventually we deposit in our lungs.

Harsh, foul smelling chemicals, and many that cannot be seen or smelled, are poisons that intoxicate us for years, shortening our lives and frequently making chronic invalids of many who deserve a better fate in this great scientific world of lunar accomplishment. It is inconceivable that the scientific process that has made space travel safe cannot and will not protect those of us who are forced to remain on earth.

There are few more distressing diseases than chronic emphysema and other respiratory ailments and make permanent invalids and lifelong patients in hospitals. Tobacco, a major threat to our health, leaves its devastation with an excellent boost from the fumes of automobile exhaust and the vapors of fuels that warm our homes. How is it possible that when the need is so apparent the protection of our health eludes community pressure, health educators, and politicians?

It is particularly exciting to follow the enthusiasm of the young college students who seem to be far more interested than their elders. They are mobilizing their forces and really putting on pressure in areas that may pay off the greatest dividends to their health and to the health of their parents. What an excellent way to reduce a "gap" with a health gift.

The efforts of youth in this direction are singularly interesting because they have the least at stake medically at the present time. Yet they have vision and courage and refuse to stand by and accept the dangerous fumes of the diesel trucks that pollute our civilization.

The prevention and control of air pollution is a major medical and social problem. It is pointless to spend lives saved from Diphtheria, smallpox, cholera, tuberculosis, and cancer in an iron lung.

Don't overfeed children. They know their own limits.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Tuesday, Feb. 24, the 55th day of 1970. There are 310 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1945, American forces liberated Manila from Japanese occupation during World War II.

On this date: In 1868, the U.S. House of Representatives began impeachment proceedings against President Andrew Johnson.

In 1903, the United States acquired a naval station on Guantanamo Bay in Cuba.

In 1863, Arizona was organized as a territory.

In 1920, the Nazi party was organized in Germany.

In 1942, the U.S. overseas radio network, the Voice of America, went on the air for the first time.

In 1946, Juan Peron was elected president of Argentina.

Ten years ago — The U.S. Titan intercontinental ballistic missile completed its first successful full-range test, soaring 5,000 miles down the Atlantic test range from Cape Canaveral.

Five years ago — U.S. jet bombers manned solely by Americans carried out their first air strikes in South Vietnam.

LBJ Might Explain It

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Poor Lyndon Johnson. He doesn't explain his decisions on Vietnam very well — or if he does it is willfully misinterpreted by the dove Democrats who can't resist making a case against him.

An Australian acquaintance of mine, now living in this country, says that any number of his countrymen can tell why it was necessary for LBJ to go into South Vietnam in force in 1965 and why it did no particular harm for him to stop the bombing of North Vietnam in 1968.

In 1965, according to the Australian explanation, it was just plain common sense to have the "southern point of view." We forget now that in 1965 the Red Chinese were emulating the Japanese of 1941 and pushing toward the East Indies. It looked then as if Indonesia would stay in the Red camp. The Moscow Communists were competing with the Maoists in supporting Ho Chi Minh's southward drive. All too vividly the Australians recalled General Douglas MacArthur's World War II decision to stop the Japanese enemy in New Guinea, to the north of the Australian continent. As MacArthur had put it, rejecting a stand across the middle of Australia, "the Brisbane Line is not enough." Just so it was strategically incumbent on both the U.S. and Australia to stop the Red Chinese and their allies somewhere in southeastern Asia. If South Vietnam had collapsed while the Communists were threatening Malaysia from Indonesia, the Australians — and the U.S. too — would have been in the devil of a fix.

As 1965 faded into the distance, however, Peking was compelled to shift its ground. The "northern point of view" came to the fore of the Asian continent with Mao Tse-tung eyeing Siberia. Indonesia flopped out of the Red orbit. The chaos of the "cultural revolution" turned the Maoists to isolation for a period. Meanwhile, the split between Red China and Soviet Russia kept deepening. The Dragon and the Bear faced each other along 4,000 miles of inner Asia, actually fighting over islands in a river. In South Vietnam Ho Chi Minh, despite the propaganda of the U.S. doves who talked of a U.S. defeat, shot his war in the disastrous Tet offensive.

True enough, Moscow and Peking continued to support the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong, but the old fervor had gone.

So it was not necessarily 1968 Presidential politics that caused Lyndon Johnson to soften his approach to the Vietnam War. If Dean Rusk, not Clark Clifford, caused Johnson to change his mind about the bombing and about going to the peace table, it could have been because our State Department had its own information about the development of the "northern point of view" in Red China. If he chose to do so, Lyndon Johnson might give us a sound geopolitical reason for everything he did. After all, if the Communists in Asia shift back to a more inflammatory southern strategy, we can always resume the bombing and slow down the troop withdrawals, meanwhile working at the Vietnamization program anyway.

Neither Johnson, in his television series, nor Nixon, in his reports to the nation, has seen fit to make plain things different again.

U.S. GRANT RUNNING FOR GOVERNOR—Ulysses S. Grant, 32, who claims he received a message from above when he was three years old telling him he was the reincarnation of the famed general and president, is running for governor of New Mexico. He plans to campaign on horseback and TV.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

If you are subject to hypertensive headaches—those that accompany high blood pressure—you may be able to end or curb them simply by using less salt.

The Panama Canal, hailed as one of the world's modern wonders upon its completion in 1914, is becoming outmoded. Almost a thousand ships are too wide to go through "the big ditch," and another 1,200 have to reduce their cargo in order to navigate it.

Those good old days: It's hard to believe now, but back in 1836 the U.S. Treasury declared a federal surplus of $28 million and divided it among 26 states.

Instead of using old newspapers to wrap wet fish, in the future we may eat them. A micro-organism that converts cellulose waste into pure protein has been found by Louisiana State University researchers. The protein which, hopefully, can be combined with other substances to make tasty food products has the texture of rough flour.

The older you are, the less likely you are to be a litterbug. That may be a minor tribute to age, but it's a fact. A survey found that people between 21 and 35 are three times as likely to leave litter around as those over 50.

Quotable notables: "Show me a community or a country where all the minor vices are discouraged, and I will show you one bereft of major virtues."—Heywood Brown.

No easy way: Wouldn't you like to learn a foreign language by "listening" to records or radio broadcasts in that tongue played while you slept? It sounds great, but according to language experts consulted by New York State's attorney general, this kind of sleep learning is "inconceivable."

It is small wonder why bees are so busy. A bee has to visit 60-to-90 thousand flowers to make a mere thimbleful of honey. To add only two pounds of honey a day to a hive, five million individual bee flights are required.

If you feel you aren't hearing quite as well as you used to, smoking may be a contributory cause. A study at the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania found that many smokers over 50 have a mildly impaired ability to hear low-pitched tones.

Worth remembering: "To handle yourself, use your head—to handle others, use your heart."

The earth is probably getting fatter as the result of thousands of tons of star dust that accumulates annually from its whirl through space. But your chances of seeing a really big asteroid strike the earth—say one weighing 50,000 tons or more—are pretty meager. It is estimated that one crashes into our planet only about once over 18,000 years.

It was Samuel Johnson who observed, "The feeling of friendship is like that of being comfortably filled with roast beef; love, like being enlightened with champagne."

Goodell Wants Closer Study Of Spending

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Charles Goodell believes that Congress and other sectors of the government should scrutinize military spending to halt the "dollar drain" to Vietnam and to step up spending for the needs of "human betterment."

The New York Republican called on the administration to cut out waste in weapons for "over-kill" and to curb the spiraling arms race.

He made the statements Sunday night in a speech to about 3,000 Miami University students during the school's "Voices of Dissent Program." The title of his talk was "Domestic Priorities."

He said that Pentagon spending for Vietnam and weapons procurement threatens any real shift to new priorities and dwindles the "peace dividend."

Mansfield Wants More Facts On Bigger ABM Net

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield says the Nixon administration should lay all its cards on the table before asking Congress to approve an expanded Safeguard ABM system.

The Montana Democrat said Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird will be quizzed on the need for such a system, and its cost, accuracy and reliability. The Senate Armed Services Committee and the defense appropriations subcommittee.

"All the cards should be laid on the table," Mansfield said in an interview. "What the full cost of a thin system would be. What the full cost of a thick system would be."

Mansfield said Laird should reveal "the facts about the vulnerability of the radar system, which if hit would knock out the whole ABM system."

Congressional sources, meanwhile, disclosed this year's ABM program envisions new missile sites at Whiteman Air Force Base, Mo. and Warren Air Force Base, Wyo.

Officials of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Sedalia, Mo., cities nearest the proposed new sites, said they were unaware of the selection.

Mayor Ralph Walker of Sedalia said he was delighted at the prospect of economic benefits to the 25,000 population community, but noted having nuclear-tipped missiles nearby would make some residents "a little nervous."

The Nixon administration early last year sought a thin ABM system limited to protection of U. S. Minuteman intercontinental ballistic missile sites. Safeguard sites in Montana and North Dakota were approved in the Senate by a one-vote margin last summer.

Laff-A-Day

"Would you mind flirting with my husband just enough to make him shave and dress up a little?"

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

BOB HOPE knows an enterprising couple who have produced twenty-two offspring! After the nineteenth, in fact, they ran out of new names, so the three oldest and the three youngest have the same names. That's one house where there's a certain amount of confusion — especially when fourteen of the kids try to go out of the front door at the same time.

What will end this rash of nudity that is turning so much of the theatre and motion picture world into a cross between a men's stag show and a medical clinic? James Edward has an interesting theory on what will bring back clothing to the entertainment industry: Unions! "Once the costume designers band together and order a producer to buy clothes for his cast, whether they are used or not," he reckons, "some entrepreneur is going to say, 'By golly, if I'm paying for costumes, I damn well want to see them.'" By that time, too, producers may discover that it's even harder to find beautiful bodies than it is to find beautiful scripts.

An angry boss summoned his assistant accountant to his sanctum, and thundered, "You lied to me! You didn't show up yesterday because you told me you had to bury your mother-in-law and ten minutes ago I met her on the avenue." "You misunderstood me, Boss," pleaded the underling. "I didn't say she was dead; I merely told you I'd like to go to her funeral."

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

The forces at work for good in large and small communities all over this country are amazing evidence that people really care. They combine their energies in parent-teacher associations, enlist volunteers for hospitals, they beautify the streets with trees and shrubs and solicit funds for many causes.

These forces exert so much pressure that they cannot be denied when once they have been organized. I have spoken to large audiences and have been amazed by the creativity and ingenuity of women's organizations in politics, in community health, and in cultural development. They probably have been most powerful in directing educators to the special needs of their children in schools and universities.

It is with utter dismay and despair, therefore, that I try to explain how these same forces can be so ineffective in cleansing the air we breathe of the filth and pollution that continue to contaminate our lungs. Factories, electrical plants, and garbage disposal systems pour thousands of tons of poisonous gases into the air that eventually we deposit in our lungs.

Harsh, foul smelling chemicals, and many that cannot be seen or smelled, are poisons that intoxicate us for years, shortening our lives and frequently making chronic invalids of many who deserve a better fate in this great scientific world of lunar accomplishment. It is inconceivable that the scientific process that has made space travel safe cannot and will not protect those of us who are forced to remain on earth.

There are few more distressing diseases than chronic emphysema and other respiratory ailments and make permanent invalids and lifelong patients in hospitals. Tobacco, a major threat to our health, leaves its devastation with an excellent boost from the fumes of automobile exhaust and the vapors of fuels that warm our homes. How is it possible that when the need is so apparent the protection of our health eludes community pressure, health educators, and politicians?

It is particularly exciting to follow the enthusiasm of the young college students who seem to be far more interested than their elders. They are mobilizing their forces and

LBJ Might Explain It

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
Poor Lyndon Johnson. He doesn't explain his decisions on Vietnam very well — or if he does it is willfully misinterpreted by the dove Democrats who can't resist making a case against him.

An Australian acquaintance of mine, now living in this country, says that any number of his countrymen can tell why it was necessary for LBJ to go into South Vietnam in force in 1955 and why it did no particular harm for him to stop the bombing of North Vietnam in 1968.

In 1965, according to the Australian explanation, it was just plain common sense to have the "southern point of view." We forget now that in 1965 the Red Chinese were emulating the Japanese of 1941 and pushing toward the East Indies. It looked then as if Indonesia would stay in the Red camp. The Moscow Communists were competing with the Maoists in supporting Ho Chi Minh's southward drive. All too vividly the Australians recalled General Douglas MacArthur's World War II decision to stop the Japanese enemy in New Guinea, to the north of the Australian continent. As MacArthur had put it, rejecting a stand across the middle of Australia, "the Brisbane Line is not enough." Just so it was strategically incumbent on both the U.S. and Australia to stop the Red Chinese and their allies somewhere in southeastern Asia. If South Vietnam had collapsed while the Communists were threatening Malaysia from Indonesia, the Australians — and the U.S. too — would have been in the devil of a fix.

As 1965 faded into the distance, however, Peking was compelled to shift its ground. The "northern point of view" came to the fore of the Asian continent with Mao Tse-tung eyeing Siberia. Indonesia flopped out of the Red orbit. The chaos of the "cultural revolution" turned the Maoists to isolation for a period. Meanwhile, the split between Red China and Soviet Russia kept deepening. The Dragon and the Bear faced each other along 4,000 miles of inner Asia, actually fighting over islands in a river. In South Vietnam Ho Chi Minh, despite the propaganda of the U.S. doves who talked of a U.S. defeat, shot his wad in the disastrous Tet offensive.

True enough, Moscow and Peking continued to support the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong, but the old fervor had gone.

So it was not necessarily 1968 Presidential politics that caused Lyndon Johnson to soften his approach to the Vietnam War. If Dean Rusk, not Clark Clifford, caused Johnson to change his mind about the bombing and about going to the peace table, it could have been because our State Department had its own information about the development of the "northern point of view" in Red China. If he chose to do so, Lyndon Johnson might give us a sound geopolitical reason for everything he did. After all, if the Communists in Asia shift back to a more inflammatory southern strategy, we can always resume the bombing and slow down the troop withdrawals, meanwhile working at the Vietnamization program anyway.

Neither Johnson, in his television series, nor Nixon, in his reports to the nation, has seen fit to make plain things different again. It took an Australian to clarify for me the quarrel between the "southern point of view" on the New York Times, as represented by its foreign affairs columnist, Cyrus Sulzberger and the "northern point of view" as represented by the Time's former Moscow correspondent, Harrison Salisbury. Sulzberger isn't talking very much these days about the menace of Ho Chi Minh's heirs, but if the Moscow and Peking Communists were to make peace and turn their full attention to Southeast Asia everything would begin to look

U.S. GRANT RUNNING FOR GOVERNOR—Ulysses S. Grant, 32, who claims he received a message from above when he was three years old telling him he was the reincarnation of the famed general and president, is running for governor of New Mexico. He plans to campaign on horseback and TV.

According to Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

If you are subject to hypertension headaches—those that accompany high blood pressure—you may be able to end or curb them simply by using less salt.

The Panama Canal, hailed as one of the world's modern wonders upon its completion in 1914, is becoming outmoded. Almost a thousand ships are too wide to go through "the big ditch," and another 1,200 have to reduce their cargo in order to navigate it.

Those good old days: It's hard to believe now, but back in 1836 the U.S. Treasury declared a federal surplus of $28 million and divided it among 26 states.

Instead of using old newspapers to wrap wet fish, in the future we may eat them. A micro-organism that converts cellulose waste into pure protein has been found by Louisiana State University researchers. The protein which, hopefully, can be combined with other substances to make tasty food products has the texture of rough flour.

The older you are, the less likely you are to be a litterbug. That may be a minor tribute to age, but it's a fact. A survey found that people between 21 and 35 are three times as likely to leave litter around as those over 50.

Quotable notables: "Show me a community or a country where all the minor vices are discouraged, and I will show you one bereft of major virtues."—Hewwood Brown.

No easy way: Wouldn't you like to learn a foreign language by "listening" to records or radio broadcasts in that tongue played while you sleep? It sounds great, but according to language experts consulted by New York State's attorney general, this kind of sleep learning is "inconceivable."

It is small wonder why bees are so busy. A bee has to visit 60-to-90 thousand flowers to make a mere thimbleful of honey. To add only two pounds of honey a day to a hive, five million individual bee flights are required.

If you feel you aren't hearing quite as well as you used to, smoking may be a contributory cause. A study at the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania found that many smokers over 50 have a mildly impaired ability to hear low-pitched tones.

Worth remembering: "To handle yourself, use your head — to handle others, use your heart."

The earth is probably getting fatter as the result of thousands of tons of star dust it accumulates annually from its whirl through space. But your chances of seeing a really big asteroid strike the earth—say one weighing 50,000 tons or more—are pretty meager. It is estimated that one crashes into our planet only about once over 18,000 years.

It was Samuel Johnson who observed, "The feeling of friendship is like that of being comfortably filled with roast beef; love, like being enlightened with champagne."

Goodell Wants Closer Study Of Spending

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Charles Goodell believes that Congress and other sectors of the government should scrutinize military spending to halt the "dollar drain" to Vietnam and to step up spending for the needs of "human betterment."

The New York Republican called on the administration to cut out waste in weapons for "over-kill" and to curb the spiraling arms race.

He made the statements Sunday night in a speech to about 3,000 Miami University students during the school's "Voices of Dissent Program." The title of his talk was "Domestic Priorities."

He said that Pentagon spending for Vietnam and weapons procurement threatens any real shift to new priorities and dwindles the "peace dividend."

Guild Plans For 'Follies' Talent Party

Berger Hospital General Guild is now searching for talent for its "High Fever Follies."

Chairman of the talent committee, Mrs. Joseph L. Smith and Mrs. Charles Resler, expressed hope that everyone interested in participating in the production will feel free to join in the fun. Rehearsals will begin after the "Kick Off" party 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 3 at St. Philip's Episcopal Church Parish House. The producer from the Jerome H. Cargill Producing Organization in New York will be introduced.

Spokesmen said that all adult Pickaway Countians are invited and from past experience actors will find that it is more fun than work. Rehearsals will be planned for both morning and evening hours for the convenience of those taking part.

Entertainment for the "Kick Off" party will be supplied by the Psychedolics, a local teen band. Vocal selections will be presented by Roger Allen, Joann Pettit, Diane Berger and Jim Leckrone, veteran follies enthusiasts. Accompaniment will be supplied by Patty Morris. David L. Schneider will be master of ceremonies.

Mrs. E. W. Hedges, chairman of the follies patron committee, reminds interested parties that patron tickets should be returned as soon as possible. Feb. 28, is the deadline for including patron names in the program. Reservations are also available by mailing a request to General Guild Follies "70", P.O. Box 1970, Circleville.

Urge Policy 'Overhaul'

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Kenneth Young, former ambassador to Thailand, feels that the United States "over-presence" in Asia, especially the Southeastern portion, is due for an overhaul.

"We should withdraw but not totally and in this process change our relationship to a partnership," Young told students at Miami University Monday evening during its sixth annual Voice of Dissent program.

Young, who served as ambassador during the Kennedy administration and currently is president of the Asian Society, said that since a major part of the world population resides in the area a complete pullout is precluded.

Young also believes that Japan holds the key to the future of Asia.

"What happens in this part of the world will depend greatly on the direction Japan takes," he said. "The potential of Japan is seemingly unlimited, based upon their progress in the last two decades."

Antipollution Bill Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Robert H. Mollohan, D-W Va., was expected to introduce a bill in the House today aimed at curbing interstate air pollution across the Ohio River between Ohio and West Virginia.

Mollohan said the bill has been approved by the legislatures of both states and by the Senate.

It would establish a 10-member commission composed of five persons appointed by the governors of each state. Commission members would represent government, industry, and the general public and would include the governor or his representative. Private citizens could register complaints with the commission.

The bill provides for Kentucky and Pennsylvania to join the compact later if they so desire.

The bill would empower the commission to inspect suspected violators of the Air Quality Act of 1967 and to issue "cease and desist" orders where deemed necessary.

Nader Claims Ohio Pollution Among Worst

WESTERVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Ohio is one of the most polluted states in the nation, according to consumer critic Ralph Nader.

Nader told an Otterbein College audience Monday he thinks the pollution crisis is more serious than scientists have indicated, because they want to keep from arousing panic.

He said scientists are not prophets of doom when they say the nation has 30 years to clean up the environment.

Lake Erie, the most polluted of the nation's waterways, is an example of the disrespect industries and municipalities have shown nature, he said. He accused the Ford Motor Co. of responsibility for about 20 percent of Lake Erie's pollution.

Stockholders Vote To Sell Interest

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Stockholders of Selion Inc., voted in a special meeting Monday to sell the company's interest in the Lockwood Corp. of Nebraska to the Alaska Interstate Co. Lockwood is a specialized agricultural equipment company.

Selion will sell its one million shares of outstanding voting stock in Lockwood to Alaska Interstate, a Texas conglomerate, for more than $9.4 million in cash and special notes. Selion President Robert T. Guyton said the sale is part of his company's plans to eliminate all corporate debts and provide cash for expansion.

By EILEEN EASTERDAY — Phone 986-3481

A number of our local lassies readily consented to canvass the village and township Sun., Feb. 22 for the Heart Fund. Our young teen-agers have done a marvelous job in the past on this fund raising and my vote of confidence was in their corner again this year. It bears repeating that if you want to get a job well done just ask your young people. It's been my experience they come through every time.

Lending their pretty faces and willingness to this year's drive was Connie Drummond, Cindy Hamman, Cindy Schleich, Vicki Christopher, Sherree Christopher, Judy Wright, Elyse Rhinesmith, Bunny Stevens, Debbie Thompson, Debbie Krahn, Debbie Cook, Beverly McDill, Pam Williams, Ann Hamric, Linda Drummond, Janie Schein, Becki Easterday, Joyce Stevens, Linda Eisnaugle, Ann Straley, Barbara Lanman, Christy Hanson, Nancy Mace, Sally Mace, Joyce Stevens, Judy Schein. The girls assembled at my home at 2 p.m. and received instructions and collection kits. Each year we hope to have a better drive than ever before and this year was no exception.

Mr. Jack Clark is in Doctors North hospital recovering from surgery he underwent on Monday. He loves his ice cream so all they have to do to keep him happy is bring on the delectable confection.

Mr. Smith (Smitty) Lingo remains in serious condition at Fayette Memorial Hospital Washington C. H. He had returned home but his illness necessitated his being admitted again.

Another well known resident, Mrs. Darl (Bessie) Miller is also very, very ill and a patient in Room 702, Grant Hospital, Columbus. It goes without saying that cards to all of these folks would surely be a bright spot in their day and to take the time.

Friends will want to know that I chatted with Virginia Adkins the other day when I attended the board meeting of the Childrens Services and she told me her father, John Smith is doing very well and one of their concerns at the moment is finding a competent live-in houseworker so that their father could realize one of his fondest desires and that is to return to his home here in our town. We wish them success since it would be so nice to have kindly Mr. Smith back among his many, many friends.

An otherwise dreary Sunday afternoon was brightened considerably at our home when our Becki's dear and good friend, Ruth Beck of Circleville came over for several hours. Nothing like young people in the house to keep it lively.

Mike Martin, classmate of Chuck Graffis at Jackson Jr. HI was the Friday overnight guest at the Graffis home and along with mom and pop Graffis (Sue and John), Teresa and her friend Julia Russell they were among those who journeyed to Lancaster to cheer the Westfall basketball team. The other Graffis son, John Alan enjoyed a trip and overnight visit to Gallipolis with his school teacher, Herman Sprague.

Gene and Helen Smith are back home shivering after a two weeks vacation in the sunny climes of Tampa and Winter Haven, Fla. While there they visited with a cousin of Gene's and also my neighbors, Harry and Emma Puffinbarger who are wintering at Winter Haven. Helen says they really had a ball! The doors to her beauty shop opened up to resume business Wednesday.

You might note on your calendar the date March 21 and the words, Sausage and Pancake supper, sponsored by all those seniors who are working so hard to finance a trip to Washington D. C. Serving will start at 4:30 p.m. in the Westfall High School cafeteria.

The whole clan gathered together week ago Sunday for some of mom's good cooking and just plain family fun at the home of Charlie and Esther Picklesimer and Faith Ann (Lil Charlie). Coming up from Athens Saturday for an overnight stay were Dave and Janet Lovett and young Trent and Sunday they were joined with Mike and Gail Stauffer and little Brent of Williamsport. Brad and Donna Thompson and gay little Marci of Circleville. This immediate past Sunday Esther and Lil Charlie spent the day with dear old dad and granddaddy, Darl Miller.

Leonard Lingo has sold out his interest in the Sinclair service station on Route 22 to the Oesterle family and I believe "Tank" Oesterle is doing the actual operation of the station.

Good Heavens! don't blink your eyes twice in our town these days. Things really shift in a hurry. Ilo Dearth has sold her beauty shop and the new owner is Pat Henson with Mary Ella Wood, operator. They both were formerly employed at a shop in Circleville. Pat lives in the Jackson Twp. area with husband Frank and three

Packwood Plan Would Be Boost To Birth Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — Taxpayers would be allowed to claim not more than three children as personal income tax exemptions under a bill introduced in the Senate today by Republican Bob Packwood of Oregon.

Under present law each child qualifies for a $600 exemption which will go to $750 by 1973.

children, Janie, Ray and Mark. Mary Ella is from Clarksburg community and the daughter of Mrs. Tressie Wood.

Another young man about town recently celebrated his sixth birthday and while no party was actually planned, Brian Wisecup was honored several times nonetheless. On Friday evening his parents, Gary and Sandy, his sister Tracey and Brian enjoyed cake and ice cream with grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Orin Wisecup of New Holland. Other guests were Dan and Bernice Noble, former area residents but for some time now they have lived in New Holland. Friday morning during kindergarten hours Brian and Jay Lane shared cupcakes and ice cream cone clowns with their classmates. The refreshments were provided by the mamas, Sandy and Gwen Lane. Stopping by his home on Sunday (Feb. 8) which was the actual birthday were great-grandmamas Mrs. Hazel Clark and Mrs. C. Allen and Onda Pullen, Tami and Jeff. Wonder who gave him his hardest birthday spanking? My guess is Jeff or his Aunt Dee Dee Clark (she baked him a cake, too).

Sorosis Club met in the lovely country home of Mrs. Charles (Clarabelle) Rose, Monday evening. There were two highlights at the meeting with the first being the installation of new officers at an impressive candle light ceremony. The installing officers were Mrs. Harry (Loretta) Keller and Mrs. David (Nancy) Snyder.

Officers for the Sorosis year beginning in March are: Mrs. Glen (Beverly) Whitten, president; Mrs. Ray (Jean) Valone, 1st vice president; Mrs. Bill (Marcia) Horch, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Ellwyn (Grace Ann) Hulse 3rd vice president; Mrs. Fred (Esta) Tipton, secretary; Mrs. Paul (Helen) Whitesed, treasurer.

The program books for the new year were distributed and it was announced by ways and means chairman Mrs. William (Eileen) Easterday that a bake sale will be held Sat. March 28 (this is the day before Easter Sunday). More details will be forthcoming.

The other definite highlight of the evening was the speaker, "The Cookie Lady", Mrs. Russell Skaggs of Circleville. It was a delightful talk and demonstration all about cookies complete with a story told by cookies. The speaker was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Helen Bartholomew of Circleville.

The refreshment committee served a delicious dessert in keeping with the season.

"Salute to Spring" The fourth annual Child Study League style show using the theme, "Salute to Spring" will be held Mon., March 2, 8 p.m. in the Westfall High School auditorium. This show has become an event eagerly looked forward to by our fashion conscious ladies and even the gentlemen. The show will be narrated by Mrs. Harry (Bernie) Turner and Mrs. Charles (Janet) Boggs. Fashions will be from Sharff's and The Childrens and Deb Shop. As in past years a number of lovely door prizes will be donated by many local and area merchants and as in the past refreshments will be served. All this for the donation of one dollar and if you are 12 and under it will only be fifty cents.

Models will be: Lana Keller, Kelly Steinhauser (Don's daughter), Lori Hulse, Susan Wright, Kristen Metzger, Julie Diltz, Tina and Vicki Cottrill, Nancy Keller, Denise Rhinesmith, Beverly McDill, Patty Schein, Debbie Hulse, Cora and Kay Whitesed, Elsie Wright, Betty Shaeffer, Martha Ewing, Virginia Strawser, Lu Ann Davis, Sylvia Johnson, Marvin Rihl, Jo Hamman, Linda Diltz, Dusty Puffinbarger, Jack Fuller, Lee Bowser, Stephen and Philip Linville.

Of course it takes the hard work of all the committees to have a successful show and we will bring you those at a later writing. In the meantime let's all cross our fingers, say our prayers and whatever else it takes for the Herald photographer to cover the show as beautifully as it was done last year. It was great to open the paper and recognize so many friends and scads of folks were pleased as punch that we had "made the paper." By "we" I am referring to those who had their picture taken and our community as a whole.

Mrs. Glyn (Rev. Ed's pretty wife) Linville returned home Monday after several days of being with her folks in Jackson, Miss. Her father had undergone very serious surgery and has been quite ill but she was encouraged after a call to her mother Wednesday. The report is that he is improving and while it will take a lengthy recuperation period the word improving is always so beautiful when one is ill.

Shades of a pioneer! We have one in our very own midst in the person of Mrs. Lucy

Doctor O.K.'s This Hemorrhoid Treatment For N.J. Couple's Son

Treatment Shrinks Piles, Relieves Pain In Most Cases

Wharton, N.J. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jeffers report: "Our son suffered from hemorrhoids. I asked the doctor about Preparation H and he gave us the O.K. Our son is now fine, thanks to Preparation H." (Note: Doctors have proved in most cases—Preparation H actually shrinks inflamed hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from pain, burning and itching. Then swelling is gently reduced. There's no other formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids like doctor-tested Preparation H. It also lubricates to make bowel movements more comfortable, soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.)

Lemaster of Hill Rd. She celebrated her 76th birthday on Feb. 11 and while a daughter-in-law and grandchildren, Mary (Mrs. Norfl) Lemaster, Sally, Sharon, Sandra, Shirley and Richard were at her home to extend best wishes for the day a noise was heard out in the chicken yard so grandma went to investigate and discovered a possum hungry for a chicken dinner. Well, she called for her 410 shotgun and at this Mr. Possum scampered up a nearby tree but "Deadeye Dick" Lemaster brought him down with one shot and that's not all, this incident brought to mind that at another time she shot and killed two possums with one shot so this should serve as a warning to all members of the possum family to do their "going out to eat" some place else besides Grandma Lemaster's chicken yard.

The Norfls Lemaster (he is probably better known as Sandy) family have returned to their home here after living for quite a while at Tornado, W. Va. Sandy still remains employed there and spends as much time as possible with his family here.

I want all who know Don Greenwood, son of Mary Alice Greenwood, to do me a big favor and in the long run it will be a favor to him, too. Don had the misfortune to have a vertebra in his neck injured and was given orders by his doctor to wear a neck brace at all times. Being full of the confidence of youth that everything will come out o.k.

It's about time he got the accurate time. With ACCUTRON he'll never be without it.

he has been a bad boy and doesn't wear the brace as he should. This concerns me and his mother very much so I am making a public appeal that all his friends "ride" his back if he doesn't have the brace on and maybe we can make him so tired of being reminded that he will wear it to keep us quiet. Don is growing one of those "tuff" Lincolnesque beards that turn me on so. Another real groovy one is Nathan Wilson. All either needs is a top hat and voila! Abe, himself.

Antipollution Bill Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Robert H. Mollohan, D-W Va., was expected to introduce a bill in the House today aimed at curbing interstate air pollution across the Ohio River between Ohio and West Virginia.

Mollohan said the bill has been approved by the legislatures of both states and by the Senate.

It would establish a 10-member commission composed of five persons appointed by the governors of each state. Commission members would represent government, industry, and the general public and would include the governor or his representative. Private citizens could register complaints with the commission.

The bill provides for Kentucky and Pennsylvania to join the compact later if they so desire.

The bill would empower the commission to inspect suspected violators of the Air Quality Act of 1967 and to issue "cease and desist" orders where deemed necessary.

Nader Claims Ohio Pollution Among Worst

WESTERVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Ohio is one of the most polluted states in the nation, according to consumer critic Ralph Nader.

Nader told an Otterbein College audience Monday he thinks the pollution crisis is more serious than scientists have indicated, because they want to keep from arousing panic.

He said scientists are not prophets of doom when they say the nation has 30 years to clean up the environment.

Lake Erie, the most polluted of the nation's waterways, is an example of the disrespect industries and municipalities have shown nature, he said. He accused the Ford Motor Co. of responsibility for about 20 per cent of Lake Erie's pollution.

Stockholders Vote To Sell Interest

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Stockholders of Selion Inc., voted in a special meeting Monday to sell the company's interest in the Lockwood Corp. of Nebraska to the Alaska Interstate Co. Lockwood is a specialized agricultural equipment company.

Selion will sell its one million shares of outstanding voting stock in Lockwood to Alaska Interstate, a Texas conglomerate, for more than $9.4 million in cash and special notes. Selion President Robert T. Guyton said the sale is part of his company's plans to eliminate all corporate debts and provide cash for expansion.

Superior Coach Co. Receives Big Order

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The Superior Coach Corp. here announced Monday the receipt of more than $7 million in contracts for adult passenger buses and military shop van bodies for the federal government.

The units will be produced at Superior plants in Lima and in Kosciusko, Miss.

By EILEEN EASTERDAY — Phone 986-3481

A number of our local lassies readily consented to canvass the village and township Sun., Feb. 22 for the Heart Fund. Our young teen-agers have done a marvelous job in the past on this fund raising and my vote of confidence was in their corner again this year. It bears repeating that if you want to get a job well done just ask your young people. It's been my experience they come through every time.

Lending their pretty faces and willingness to this year's drive was Connie Drummond, Cindy Christopher, Sherree Christopher, Judy Wright, Elyse Rhinesmith, Bunny Stevens, Debbie Thompson, Debbie Krahn, Debbie Cook, Beverly McDill, Pam Williams, Ann Hamric, Linda Drummond, Janie Schein, Becki Easterday, Joyce Stevens, Linda Eisnagle, Ann Straley, Barbara Lanman, Christy Hanson, Nancy Mace, Sally Mace, Joyce Stevens, Judy Schein. The girls assembled at my home at 2 p.m. and received instructions and collection kits. Each year we hope to have a better drive than ever before and this year was no exception.

Mr. Jack Clark is in Doctors North hospital recovering from surgery he underwent on Monday. He loves his ice cream so all they have to do to keep him happy is bring on the delectable confection.

Mr. Smith (Smitty) Lingo remains in serious condition at Fayette Memorial Hospital Washington C. H. He had returned home but his illness necessitated his being admitted again.

Another well known resident, Mrs. Dari (Bessie) Miller is also very, very ill and a patient in Room 702, Grant Hospital, Columbus. It goes without saying that cards to all of these folks would surely be a bright spot in their day and to take the time.

Friends will want to know that I chatted with Virginia Adkins the other day when I attended the board meeting of the Childrens Services and she told me her father, John Smith is doing very well and one of their concerns at the moment is finding a competent live-in houseworker so that their father could realize one of his fondest desires and that is to return to his home here in our town. We wish them success since it would be so nice to have kindly Mr. Smith back among his many, many friends.

An otherwise dreary Sunday afternoon was brightened considerably at our home when our Becki's dear and good friend, Ruth Beck of Circleville came over for several hours. Nothing like young people in the house to keep it lively.

Mike Martin, classmate of Chuck Graffis at Jackson Jr. Hi was the Friday overnight guest at the Graffis home and along with mom and pop Graffis (Sue and John), Teresa and her friend Julia Russell they were among those who journeyed to Lancaster to cheer the Westfall basketball team. The other Graffis son, John Alan enjoyed a trip and overnight visit to Gallipolis with his school teacher, Herman Sprague.

Gene and Helen Smith are back home shivering after a two weeks vacation in the sunny climes of Tampa and Winter Haven, Fla. While there they visited with a cousin of Gene's and also my neighbors, Harry and Emma Puffinbarger who are wintering at Winter Haven. Helen says they really had a ball! The doors to her beauty shop opened up to resume business Wednesday.

You might note on your calendar the date March 21 and the words, Sausage and Pancake supper, sponsored by all those seniors who are working so hard to finance a trip to Washington D. C. Serving will start at 4:30 p.m. in the Westfall High School cafeteria.

The whole clan gathered together whole week ago Sunday for some of mom's good cooking and just plain family fun at the home of Charlie and Esther Picklesimer and Faith Ann (Lil Charlie). Coming up from Athens Saturday for an overnight stay were Dave and Janet Lovett and young Trent and Sunday they were joined with Mike and Gail Stauffer and little Brent of Williamsport, Brad and Donna Thompson and gay little Marci of Circleville.

This immediate past Sunday Esther and Lil Charlie spent the day with dear old dad and granddaddy, Darl Miller.

Leonard Lingo has sold out his interest in the Sinclair service station on Route 22 to the Oesterle family and I believe "Tank" Oesterle is doing the actual operation of the station.

Good Heavens! don't blink your eyes twice in our town these days. Things really shift in a hurry. Ilo Dearth has sold her beauty shop and the new owner is Pat Henson with Mary Ella Wood, operator. They both were formerly employed at a shop in Circleville. Pat lives in the Jackson Twp. area with husband Frank and three

Packwood Plan Would Be Boost To Birth Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — Taxpayers would be allowed to claim not more than three children as personal income tax exemptions under a bill introduced in the Senate today by Republican Bob Packwood of Oregon.

Packwood said he was introducing the legislation because "something dramatic must be done" to slow population growth.

The proposed legislation would become law in 1973 and provide that the first child in a family would qualify for a $1,000 personal exemption, the second $750 and the third $500.

Under present law each child qualifies for a $800 exemption which will go to $750 by 1973.

children, Janie, Ray and Mark. Mary Ella is from Clarksburg community and the daughter of Mrs. Tressie Wood.

Another young man about town recently celebrated his sixth birthday and while no party was actually planned, Brian Wisecup was honored several times nonetheless. On Friday evening his parents, Gary and Sandy, his sister Tracey and Brian enjoyed cake and ice cream with grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Orin Wisecup of New Holland. Other guests were Dan and Bernice Noble, former area residents but for some time now they have lived in New Holland. Friday morning during kindergarten hours Brian and Jay Lane shared cupcakes and ice cream cone clowns with their classmates. The refreshments were provided by the mamas, Sandy and Gwen Lane. Stopping by his home on Sunday (Feb. 8) which was the actual birthday were great-grandmamas Mrs. Hazel Clark and Mrs. C. C. Allen and Clark Fullen, Tami and Jeff. Wonder who gave him his hardest birthday spanking? My guess is Jeff or his Aunt Dee Dee Clark (she baked him a cake, too).

Sorosis Club met in the lovely country home of Mrs. Charles (Clarabelle) Rose, Monday evening. There were two highlights at the meeting with the first being the installation of new officers at an impressive candle light ceremony. The installing officers were Mrs. Harry (Loretta) Keller and Mrs. David (Nancy) Snyder.

Officers for the Sorosis year beginning in March are: Mrs. Glen (Beverly) Whitten, president; Mrs. Ray (Jean) Valone, 1st vice president; Mrs. Bill (Marcia) Horch, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Ellwyn (Grace Ann) Hulse 3rd vice president; Mrs. Fred (Esta) Tipton, secretary; Mrs. Paul (Helen) Whitesed, treasurer.

The program books for the new year were distributed and it was announced by ways and means chairman Mrs. William (Eileen) Easterday that a bake sale will be held Sat. March 28 (this is the day before Easter Sunday). More details will be forthcoming.

The other definite highlight of the evening was the speaker, "The Cookie Lady", Mrs. Russell Skaggs of Circleville. It was a delightful talk and demonstration all about cookies complete with a story told by cookies. The speaker was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Helen Bartholomew of Circleville.

The refreshment committee served a delicious dessert in keeping with the season.

"Salute to Spring"

The fourth annual Child Study League style show using the theme, "Salute to Spring" will be held Mon., March 2, 8 p.m. in the Westfall High School auditorium. This show has become an event eagerly looked forward to by our fashion conscious ladies and even the gentlemen. The show will be narrated by Mrs. Harry (Bernie) Turner and Mrs. Charles (Janet) Boggs. Fashions will be from Sharff's and The Childrens and Deb Shop. As in past years a number of lovely door prizes will be donated by many local and area merchants and as in the past refreshments will be served. All this for the donation of one dollar and if you are 12 and under it will only be fifty cents.

Models will be: Lana Keller, Kelly Steinhauser (Don's daughter), Lori Hulse, Susan Wright, Kristen Metzger, Julie Diltz, Tina and Vicki Cottrill, Nancy Keller, Denise Rhinesmith, Beverly McDill, Patty Schein, Debbie Hulse, Cora and Kay Whitesed, Elsie Wright, Betty Shaeffer, Martha Ewing, Virginia Strawser, Lu Ann Davis, Sylvia Johnson, Marvin Rihl, Jo Hamman, Linda Diltz, Dusty Puffinbarger, Jack Fuller, Lee Bowser, Stephen and Philip Linville.

Of course it takes the hard work of all the committees to have a successful show and we will bring you those at a later writing. In the meantime let's all cross our fingers, say our prayers and whatever else it takes for the Herald photographer to cover the show as beautifully as it was done last year. It was great to open the paper and recognize so many friends and scads of folks were pleased as punch that we had "made the paper." By "we" I am referring to those who had their picture taken and our community as a whole.

Mrs. Glyn (Rev. Ed's pretty wife) Linville returned home Monday after several days of being with her folks in Jackson, Miss. Her father had undergone very serious surgery and has been quite ill but she was encouraged after a call to her mother Wednesday. The report is that he is improving and while it will take a lengthy recuperation period the word improving is always so beautiful when one is ill.

Shades of a pioneer! We have one in our very own midst in the person of Mrs. Lucy

Doctor O.K.'s This Hemorrhoid Treatment For N.J. Couple's Son

Treatment Shrinks Piles, Relieves Pain In Most Cases

Wharton, N.J. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jeffers report: "Our son suffered from hemorrhoids. I asked the doctor about Preparation H and he gave us the O.K. Our son is now fine, thanks to Preparation H." (Note: Doctors have proved in most cases — Preparation H® actually shrinks inflamed hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from pain, burning and itching. Then swelling is gently reduced. There's no other formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids like doctor-tested Preparation H. It also lubricates to make bowel movements more comfortable, soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.)

Lemaster of Hill Rd. She celebrated her 76th birthday on Feb. 11 and while a daughter-in-law and grandchildren, Mary (Mrs. Norful) Lemaster, Sally, Sharon, Sandra, Shirley and Richard were at her home to extend best wishes for the day a noise was heard out in the chicken yard so grandma went to investigate and discovered a possum hungry for a chicken dinner. Well, she called for her 410 shotgun and at this Mr. Possum scampered up a nearby tree but "Deadeye Dick" Lemaster brought him down with one shot and that's not all, this incident brought to mind that at another time she shot and killed two possums with one shot so this should serve as a warning to all members of the possum family to do their "going out to eat" some place else besides Grandma Lemaster's chicken yard.

The Norfuls Lemaster (he is probably better known as Sandy) family have returned to their home here after living for quite a while at Tornado, W. Va. Sandy still remains employed there and spends as much time as possible with his family here.

I want all who know Don Greenwood, son of Mary Alice Greenwood to do me a big favor and in the long run it will be a favor to him, too. It's about time he got the accurate time. With ACCUTRON he'll never be without it.

he has been a bad boy and doesn't wear the brace as he should. This concerns me and his mother very much so I am making a public appeal that all his friends "ride" his back if he doesn't have the brace on and maybe we can make him so tired of being reminded that he will wear it to keep us quiet. Don is growing one of those "tuff" Lincoln-esque beards that turn me on so. Another real groovy one is Nathan Wilson. All either needs is a top hat and voila! Abe, himself.

Tampering With Genes Hit As Danger To Humans

HOUSTON (AP) — Tampering with genes—the basic elements of heredity—may be no more dangerous to mankind than the atomic bomb unless proper controls are created, a scientist says.

Dr. Max Tishler, who aided in the development of sulfa drugs, cortisone and the commercial synthesis of vitamins, said Monday that science may be on the verge of a breakthrough in genetics which would bring new benefits to man but also staggering problems.

"There are those—including many in the scientific community—who fear the consequences that may follow in a world unprepared when those scientists engaged in the chemistry of the genes finally learn how to manipulate them," Tishler told an American Chemical Society dinner audience.

Late-Winter Thaw Holds Sway In U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair and mild weather maintained a late-winter thaw over the midcontinent today while showers dampened a stretch of the south from the Rockies to the Appalachians.

Temperatures remained near or above normal in most sections outside the interior Northeast. Arctic cold lingered in upstate New York and northern New England.

A large part of the Rockies, the Great Plains and the Midwest warmed into the 50s Monday. Overnight lows in the 30s and 40s were common.

Fog cloaked portions of the Pacific Northwest and scattered areas across the southern plains and the lower Mississippi Valley.

Rainfall totals continued light in intermittent showers which fell from the southern Rockies eastward.

the Priestley medal, the highest honor accorded scientists by the society. Tishler, of Westfield, N.J., is a vice president of Merck Co., Inc., in charge of research.

Genetic engineering, Tishler said, could prevent illnesses such as juvenile diabetes, monogonism and sickle cell anemia. Such knowledge, he said, could perhaps also conquer cancer, which some believe results from gene mutations caused by a virus.

Tishler said, however, that some scientists fear that genetics, "once in the hands of imperfect humans might prove dangerous and less controllable than the power of the atom."

Advances by science, he said, have lowered the death rate, transformed oil into useful energy and split the atom, but uncontrolled use of this new knowledge has led to overpopulation, air pollution and creation of nuclear missiles.

ABA Proposes Major Study Of Nation's Prison System

ATLANTA (AP) — The president and the board of governors of the American Bar Association proposed Monday a major study of the nation's prison system.

If the House of Delegates, the organization's 294-member policy-making arm, gives its expected consent, a 15-member commission will be appointed to examine correction problems and to promote immediate changes.

The panel, ABA president Bernard G. Segal said in an interview, would include judges, lawyers, sociologists, psychologists and penologists.

Segal said one major objective would be to find "alternatives to prison"—ways to keep certain convicted men away from these "schools of crime" and to ease the transition of others to normal life after they have served part of their sentences.

All too often, Segal said, "an entirely reformable person comes out a confirmed criminal."

The project ties in directly with Chief Justice Warren E. Burger's advocacy of a massive reformation of prison facilities and activities.

"To put a man behind walls and not to try to change him is to deny him his humanity—and ours," Burger said in a speech Saturday to the American Bar Foundation here. He said he would like to consider prison sentences "a period of enforced education" rather than a period of "enforced and frustrating idleness."

The chief justice has taken this position before several law groups recently. He commented that 65 per cent of the 200,000 men who are serving more than brief terms in prison are convicted again after they are released, a factor that Burger said may contribute to the nation's crime rate.

Segal said ABA officials had consulted with Burger, Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, former Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach and veteran federal prison officials, among others.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice of Proposed Compromise to Consumers of Certain Broad Spectrum Antibiotics

There are pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York ("the Court") a number of class actions (the "actions") against Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc., American Cyanamid Company, Bristol-Myers Company, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Squibb Beech-Nut, Inc. and The Upjohn Company, alleging that those companies violated the antitrust laws in the sale of certain of their broad spectrum antibiotic products. It is further alleged that as a result purchasers of such products have paid prices higher than they otherwise would have paid. Early last year, the defendants, while denying liability, offered $100 million in settlement of all claims by three groups of purchasers, one group including individual consumers.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a hearing will be held before the Court beginning on March 24, 1970, at 10 o'clock in the morning in Room 110 of the United States Court House, Foley Square, New York, New York. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether a proposed compromise and settlement of all the actions should be approved by the Court under Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If so approved, all the settled actions will be dismissed on the merits as against all defendants with prejudice.

The terms of the proposed compromise and settlement are contained (1) in a proposal of the defendants (dated February 6, 1969, as modified May 9, 1969); (2) in a "Proposed Plan of Allocation" filed by the State of Alabama and many other states (the "Alabama Plan"); submitted to the Court in chambers and to defendants in August 1969, and filed with the Clerk, certain pages having been substituted, on January 20, 1970; (3) in an "Escrow Agreement" approved by order of the Court (filed on October 20, 1969); (4) in a document entitled "Election by Defendants to Proceed with a Modified Plan of Allocation" (filed on October 20, 1969); and (5) in an "Addendum" (filed on January 20, 1970) to the "Election" document just described. Copies of these five papers are on file with the Court and copies are available for examination in Room 508 of the Court House, Room 508 being a part of the Clerk's office. Plans of allocation were also filed by the State of Connecticut and others, by the County of Los Angeles, by the City of Philadelphia and others, by the City and County of San Francisco, by the Committee of Counsel in the consolidated wholesaler-retailer class action, and by the State of Vermont. Copies of these plans are also available for examination in Room 508 of the Court House.

The payments in compromise of the actions, as set forth in Exhibit B to "Election by Defendants to Proceed with a Modified Plan of Allocation" (the paper described in clause (4) in the paragraph next above), are subject to reduction for further administrative expenses and for fees and expenses (as later allowed by the Court) of counsel for plaintiffs in the actions. These amounts must be divided with the Court's approval among all the claims represented in the actions including those of individual consumers.

According to notices already given with the Court's approval, each state and other governmental entity participating in the settlement is authorized to use for the benefit of its citizens in such manner as directed by the Court whatever money is recovered on account of claims of consumers represented in its action who failed to file an individual claim by August 16, 1969.

At the hearing on March 24, 1970, any member of any class represented in the actions may appear and present any proper argument and evidence, but no person not a named party will be heard and no papers will be received unless notice of intention to appear and copies of such papers are filed with the Clerk of the Court on or before March 19, 1970.

Fair and mild weather maintained a late-winter thaw over the midcontinent today while showers dampened a stretch of the south from the Rockies to the Appalachians.

Temperatures remained near or above normal in most sections outside the interior Northeast. Arctic cold lingered in upstate New York and northern New England.

A large part of the Rockies, the Great Plains and the Midwest warmed into the 50s Monday. Overnight lows in the 30s and 40s were common. Fog cloaked portions of the Pacific Northwest and scattered areas across the southern plains and the lower Mississippi Valley.

Rainfall totals continued light in intermittent showers which fell from the southern Rockies eastward.

the Priestley medal, the highest honor accorded scientists by the society. Tishler, of Westfield, N.J., is a vice president of Merck Co., Inc., in charge of research.

Genetic engineering, Tishler said, could prevent illnesses such as juvenile diabetes, mongolism and sickle cell anemia. Such knowledge, he said, could perhaps also conquer cancer, which some believe results from gene mutations caused by a virus.

Tishler said, however, that some scientists fear that genetics, "once in the hands of imperfect humans might prove dangerous and less controllable than the power of the atom."

Advances by science, he said, have lowered the death rate, transformed oil into useful energy and split the atom, but uncontrolled use of this new knowledge has led to overpopulation, air pollution and creation of nuclear missiles.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice of Proposed Compromise to Consumers of Certain Broad Spectrum Antibiotics

There are pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York ("the Court") a number of class actions (the "actions") against Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc., American Cyanamid Company, Bristol-Myers Company, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Squibb Beech-Nut, Inc. and The Upjohn Company, alleging that those companies violated the antitrust laws in the sale of certain of their broad spectrum antibiotic products. It is further alleged that as a result purchasers of such products have paid prices higher than they otherwise would have paid. Early last year, the defendants, while denying liability, offered $100 million in settlement of all claims by three groups of purchasers, one group including individual consumers.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a hearing will be held before the Court beginning on March 24, 1970, at 10 o'clock in the morning in Room 110 of the United States Court House, Foley Square, New York, New York. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether a proposed compromise and settlement of all the actions should be approved by the Court under Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If so approved, all the settled actions will be dismissed on the merits as against all defendants with prejudice.

The terms of the proposed compromise and settlement are contained (1) in a proposal of the defendants (dated February 6, 1969, as modified May 9, 1969); (2) in a "proposed Plan of Allocation" filed by the State of Alabama and many other states (the "Alabama Plan") submitted to the Court in chambers and to defendants in August 1969, and filed with the Clerk, certain pages having been substituted, on January 20, 1970; (3) in an "Escrow Agreement" approved by order of the Court (filed on October 20, 1969); (4) in a document entitled "Election by Defendants to Proceed with a Modified Plan of Allocation" (filed on October 20, 1969); and (5) in an "Addendum" (filed on January 20, 1970) to the "Election" document just described. Copies of these five papers are on file with the Court and copies are available for examination in Room 508 of the Court House, Room 508 being a part of the Clerk's office. Plans of allocation were also filed by the State of Connecticut and others, by the County of Los Angeles, by the City of Philadelphia and others, by the City and County of San Francisco, by the Committee of Counsel in the consolidated wholesaler-retailer class action, and by the State of Vermont. Copies of these plans are also available for examination in Room 508 of the Court House.

The payments in compromise of the actions, as set forth in Exhibit B to "Election by Defendants to Proceed with a Modified Plan of Allocation" (the paper described in clause (4) in the paragraph next above), are subject to reduction for further administrative expenses and for fees and expenses (as later allowed by the Court) of counsel for plaintiffs in the actions. These amounts must be divided with the Court's approval among all the claims represented in the actions including those of individual consumers.

According to notices already given with the Court's approval, each state and other governmental entity participating in the settlement is authorized to use for the benefit of its citizens in such manner as directed by the Court whatever money is recovered on account of claims of consumers represented in its action who failed to file an individual claim by August 16, 1969.

At the hearing on March 24, 1970, any member of any class represented in the actions may appear and present any proper argument and evidence, but no person not a named party will be heard and no papers will be received unless notice of intention to appear and copies of such papers are filed with the Clerk of the Court on or before March 19, 1970.

Dated: February 16, 1970

Clerk of the United States
District Court for the Southern District of New York,

ABA Proposes Major Study Of Nation's Prison System

ATLANTA (AP) — The president and the board of governors of the American Bar Association proposed Monday a major study of the nation's prison system.

If the House of Delegates, the organization's 294-member policy-making arm, gives its expected consent, a 15-member commission will be appointed to examine correction problems and to promote immediate changes.

The panel, ABA president Bernard G. Segal said in an interview, would include judges, lawyers, sociologists, psychologists and penologists.

Segal said one major objective would be to find "alternatives to prison"—ways to keep certain convicted men away from these "schools of crime" and to ease the transition of others to normal life after they have served part of their sentences.

All too often, Segal said, "an entirely reformable person comes out a confirmed criminal."

The project ties in directly with Chief Justice Warren E. Burger's advocacy of a massive reformation of prison facilities and activities.

"To put a man behind walls and not to try to change him is to deny him his humanity—and ours," Burger said in a speech Saturday to the American Bar Foundation here. He said he would like to consider prison sentences "a period of enforced education" rather than a period of "enforced and frustrating idleness."

The chief justice has taken this position before several law groups recently. He commented that 65 per cent of the 200,000 men who are serving more than brief terms in prison are convicted again after they are released, a factor that Burger said may contribute to the nation's crime rate.

Segal said ABA officials had consulted with Burger, Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, former Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach and veteran federal prison officials, among others.

Wildcats Smash Alabama, 98-89

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Stars fell on Alabama Monday night. One of them was Dan Issel, and another, Tom Parker.

Issel jammed in 47 points and Parker scooped off 15 rebounds to lead top-ranked Kentucky to a 98-89 victory over Alabama in college basketball.

Coach Adolph Rupp, whose

Wildcats won the Southeastern Conference championship for the 25th time, praised Issel's performance: "He carried us all night."

Then basketball's winningest coach was characteristically critical of his squad, which earned an 18th appearance in the NCAA playoffs.

He said Kentucky "never did get going. I'm glad this game wasn't televised. They looked bad. They were tired."

How did he feel about winning another title and another tournament berth?

"There's always room for another trophy at our school and always room for another trip to the tournament," said Rupp, his voice tinted with pleasure. "That's 25... that isn't bad."

The Wildcats' victory highlighted a predictable night for Top Ten teams. Fourth-ranked South Carolina shelved Wake Forest 67-51; No. 5 New Mexico State clouted Boise State 105-79; and No. 8 Marquette stymied Xavier of Ohio 81-73.

In the Second Ten, Western Kentucky ripped Dayton 76-63;

Austin Carr scored 50 points to lead 13th-ranked Notre Dame over Butler 121-114 and No. 20 Utah State nipped Air Force 80-78.

Tennessee spilled Louisiana State 88-87, holding the nation's leading scorer, Pete Maravich, to 30 points, about 17 under his average.

Issel scored 24 points in the first half to pull Kentucky into a 46-37 lead, but the Wildcats kept looking over their shoulders at fast-charging Alabama.

The Crimson Tide cut the advantage to 54-50 early in the second half. Then Issel and Parker combined to stretch the Kentucky lead to 70-66 with about 10 minutes remaining.

Wake Forest played South Carolina tough until John Roche put in a field goal with 11 minutes left to give the Gamecocks a lead they never relinquished. Roche wound up with a game-high 24 points.

The victory gave South Carolina, regular season winner of the Atlantic Coast Conference, a 22-2 over-all record.

New Mexico State led throughout the game as Jimmy Collins put in 25 points. The Aggies held a 62-54 rebound advantage. Boise State's Bill Ottey topped all scorers with 27.

Jeff Sewell hit 68 per cent of his field goals and converted two key free throws as Marquette beat back late rallies by Xavier. Sewell led all scorers with 29 points.

Jim McDaniels had 24 points and 14 rebounds in the Western Kentucky cause; Collis Jones added 40 points to Carr's 50 in the Notre Dame triumph and Nate Williams scored 22 points for Utah State.

Rudy Kinard's 20-foot jump shot at the buzzer lifted Tennessee over LSU. Maravich had put the Tigers ahead with a 15-foot jumper, 87-86, with 20 seconds remaining.

Virginia beat Duke 61-57; Loyola of Chicago dropped Bowling Green 91-71; Creighton turned back Providence 68-64 and Springfield whipped Boston University 87-81 in other games.

Rupp's Boys Lead Cage Ratings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Kentucky is back atop the college basketball heap for the first time in eight weeks, which is just fine with Adolph Rupp—until the next four weeks go by.

"Naturally, we're delighted to be there," the Baron said Monday night after his Wildcats deposed UCLA by a whisker as the nation's No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll. "We just hope we're up there when March 20 comes along."

Rupp's target date happens to be the night of the NCAA championship game, which could pit the Wildcats against the defending champion Bruins.

UCLA's stunning 78-65 loss to Oregon last Saturday night, which snapped the Bruins' unbeaten streak at 25 games several hours after Kentucky outgunned Louisiana State and Pistol Pete Maravich 121-105, helped put the Cats on top for the first time since Dec. 29.

Kentucky received 14 first-place votes, to 11 for UCLA, and outpointed the Bruins 534-532 in the weekly ballot of a panel of 29 sportswriters and sportscasters. The Wildcats, who won twice last week, and the Bruins each took 21-1 records into this week's play.

St. Bonaventure, 19-1 through last weekend's games, remained in third place, followed by South Carolina, New Mexico State, Jacksonville, Pennsylvania, Marquette, Iowa and Florida State, in that order. South Carolina received three first-place ballots and Jacksonville got the other.

Kentucky was No. 1 until the poll of Jan. 5, when UCLA moved up following a 108-77 romp over high-ranked Notre Dame. The Wildcats had nipped the Irish 102-100 six days earlier. UCLA held the top spot until Monday, tightening its grip after Kentucky was upset by Vanderbilt 89-81 on Jan. 31.

The Top Twenty, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points awarded for first 15 places, based on 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8 etc.:

Maloney, Allen And Clarke Are Top Baseball Holdouts

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Maloney says the Cincinnati Reds are "out of sight" in contract negotiations, the St. Louis Cardinals find that Richie Allen is out of touch, and the New York Yankees claim Horace Clarke is out of line.

The three stars remained among the unenrolled in a day of baseball activity Monday spiced by the signing of aspirin-throwing Juan Marchal to a San Francisco pact. The ace right-hander signed a reported $125,000 contract.

The Reds offered Maloney a $80,000 contract—on the condition that he pitches at least 250 innings this year.

"The conditional contract is ridiculous... the number of innings they specify is out of sight," said the tall right-hander, author of two no-hitters.

"We're going with a five-man rotation and you'd have to pitch a complete game every time out to get that many innings."

Only 14 National League pitchers went over the 250-inning mark last year. Maloney had arm troubles last season, pitching 179 innings while compiling a 12-5 record.

"We can't win the pennant with Maloney pitching less than 250 innings," said Chief Bender, the Reds' director of player personnel. "We have to get some way to get him out to the mound and make him realize he's going to have to pitch with pain."

Allen, the gifted long-bal hitler acquired by St. Louis in a mid-winter swap, is still a will-o'-the-wisp to Cardinal management.

"We haven't talked to Allen recently," admitted Jim Tomney assistant to General Manager Bing Devine. "We've been corresponding with his attorney. We sent him an offer by mail last week—Tuesday, I think."

"We thought it was a reasonable figure. We haven't had a reply yet, so we don't know just where we stand now."

The broad-shouldered first baseman wants a reported $150,000 contract, which would make him the highest paid player in the game. He drew about $80,000 last year with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Second baseman Clarke has asked the Yankees for two salary figures—the lesser if the team helps his private business secure a $1 million loan.

General Manager Lee MacPhail said he would be happy to refer Clarke to a good bank, but retorted: "We're not in the banking business."

Lakers To Decide Chamberlain Status

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Lakers plan to decide tonight whether Wilt Chamberlain will sit out the rest of the season or rejoin the club for the playoffs.

The 7-foot-1 center has been sidelined since Nov. 7 when he severed a tendon in his kneecap in a game against Phoenix. He underwent surgery the next day and in recent weeks has been working out on his own, lifting weights and playing volleyball.

Wildcats Smash Alabama, 98-89

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Stars fell on Alabama Monday night. One of them was Dan Issel, and another, Tom Parker.

Wildcats won the Southeastern Conference championship for the 25th time, praised Issel's performance. "He carried us all night."

Then basketball's winningest coach was characteristically critical of his squad, which earned an 18th appearance in the NCAA playoffs. He said Kentucky "never did get going. I'm glad this game wasn't televised. They looked bad. They were tired."

How did he feel about winning another title and another tournament berth? "There's always room for another trophy at our school and always room for another trip to the tournament," said Rupp, his voice tinted with pleasure. "That's 25... that isn't bad."

The Wildcats' victory highlighted a predictable night for Top Ten teams. Fourth-ranked South Carolina shelled Wake Forest 67-51. No. 5 New Mexico State clouted Boise State 105-79; and No. 8 Marquette stymied Xavier of Ohio 81-73.

Rupp's Boys Lead Cage Ratings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Kentucky is back atop the college basketball heap for the first time in eight weeks, which is just fine with Adolph Rupp—until the next four weeks go by.

Naturally, we're delighted to be there," the Baron said Monday night after his Wildcats deposed UCLA by a whisker as the nation's No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll. "We just hope we're up there when March 20 comes along."

Rupp's target date happens to be the night of the NCAA championship game, which could pit the Wildcats against the defending champion Bruins. UCLA's stunning 78-65 loss to Oregon last Saturday night, which snapped the Bruins' unbeaten streak at 25 games several hours after Kentucky out-gunned Louisiana State and Pistol Pete Maravich 121-105, helped put the 'Cats on top for the first time since Dec. 29. Kentucky received 14 first-place votes, to 11 for UCLA, and outpointed the Bruins 534-532 in the weekly ballot of a panel of 29 sportswriters and sportscasters. The Wildcats, who won twice last week, and the Bruins each took 21-1 records into this week's play.

St. Bonaventure, 19-1 through last weekend's games, remained in third place, followed by South Carolina, New Mexico State, Jacksonville, Pennsylvania, Marquette, Iowa and Florida State, in that order. South Carolina received three first-place ballots and Jacksonville got the other.

Kentucky was No. 1 until the poll of Jan. 5, when UCLA moved up following a 108-77 romp over high-ranked Notre Dame. The Wildcats had nipped the Irish 102-100 six days earlier. UCLA held the top spot until Monday, tightening its grip after Kentucky was upset by Vanderbilt 89-81 on Jan. 31.

The Top Twenty, with first-place votes in parentheses and total points awarded for first 15 places, based on 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8 etc.:

Stoutsville PTA Holds Tourney

The Stoutsville Parent Teachers Association is sponsoring an independent basketball tournament March 9 through 18.

There will be a 12 team limit and trophies will be awarded to the first four places.

Further information may be obtained by calling Don Morrison (474-6368) or Neil Kern (474-6761).

The 1971 Senior Amateur golf championship of the United States will be played at the Sunnysbrook Golf Club, Plymouth Meeting, Pa., on Sept. 20-25.

250 innings," said Chief Bender, the Reds' director of player personnel. "We have to get some way to get him out to the mound and make him realize he's going to have to pitch with pain."

Allen, the gifted long-ball hitter acquired by St. Louis in a mid-winter swap, is still a will-o'-the-wisp to Cardinal management.

"We haven't talked to Allen recently," admitted Jim Tomney assistant to General Manager Bing Devine. "We've been corresponding with his attorney. We sent him an offer by mail last week—Tuesday, I think."

"We thought it was a reasonable figure. We haven't had a reply yet, so we don't know just where we stand now."

The broad-shouldered first baseman wants a reported $150,000 contract, which would make him the highest paid player in the game. He drew about $80,000 last year with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Second baseman Clarke has asked the Yankees for two salary figures—the lesser if the team helps his private business secure a $1 million loan.

General Manager Lee MacPhail said he would be happy to refer Clarke to a good bank, but retorted: "We're not in the banking business."

Major Basketball Powers Set To Take Tourney Bids

NEW YORK (AP) — Highly rated St. Bonaventure, Jacksonville and New Mexico State stood ready to snatch up NCAA basketball tournament bids to-day with the National Invitation Tournament likely to get a better than usual class of leftovers.

The NCAA selection committee is expected to announce its 10 at-large teams from Kansas City starting at 9:30 a.m., EST, for the tournament which begins with the regionals March 7.

St. Bonaventure, ranked third in the Associated Press weekly major college basketball poll, is marked for one of three East at-large berths and New Mexico State, No. 5, should be one of two West selections.

However, Jacksonville, No. 6, could be picked for either the East or as one of two teams in the Midwest.

With Utah State, No. 20, appearing to be the other West selection, that leaves six more teams to be picked for at-large berths.

Marquette, No. 8, Notre Dame, No. 13 and Houston, No. 15, are certain to be selected, with Villanova, Duquesne, and Dayton strong possibilities and Georgetown, D.C., Holy Cross and Creighton still in the running.

The rest of the 25-team field comes from conference champions with Western Kentucky winner of the Mid-American Conference, and No. 1 Kentucky, tops in the Southeastern Conference, already in.

Niagara, with All-American Calvin Murphy, also might get a bid, although the Eagles have expressed a desire to play in the NIT, which can make selections for its 16-team field two hours after the NCAA opens its doors.

The NIT is certain to take Pete Maravich-led Louisiana State, runnerup to Kentucky in the Southeastern. With Maravich and Murphy, the NIT would have two of the most colorful players in the country.

Other independent teams headed for the NIT, which offers the attraction of playing in

Maloney, Allen And Clarke Are Top Baseball Holdouts

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Jim Maloney says the Cincinnati Reds are "out of sight" in contract negotiations, the St. Louis Cardinals find that Richie Allen is out of touch, and the New York Yankees claim Horace Clarke is out of line.

The three stars remained among the unenrolled in a day of baseball activity Monday spiced by the signing of aspinthrowing Juan Marichal to a San Francisco pact. The ace righthander signed a reported $125,000 contract.

The Reds offered Maloney a $80,000 contract—on the condition that he pitches at least 250 innings this year.

"The conditional contract is ridiculous... the number of innings they specify is out of sight," said the tall righthander, author of two no-hitters.

"We're going with a five-man rotation and you'd have to pitch a complete game every time out to get that many innings."

Only 14 National League pitchers went over the 250-inning mark last year. Maloney had arm troubles last season, pitching 179 innings while compiling a 12-5 record.

"We can't win the pennant with Maloney pitching less than

Penn State, Texas Reject 11th Games

NEW YORK (AP) — The football teams of Texas and Penn State, which never got around to meeting each other last season, won't do battle during the 1970 regular season either.

Both schools have turned thumbs down on increasing their 1970 schedules from 10 to 11 games as permitted by legislation passed at the convention of the National Collegiate Athletic Association last month in Washington, D.C.

But at least 13 additional games have been added, an Associated Press survey shows, and more may be in the works.

All 13 new games are scheduled for Sept. 12, highlighted by a night game between Southern California and Alabama at Birmingham. The scene shifts to Los Angeles in 1971.

Also scheduled, with the home team listed last, are Duke-Florida, Kentucky-North Carolina, South Carolina-Georgia Tech, Holy Cross-Army, Colgate-Navy, Washington State-Kansas, Virginia-Virginia Tech, Utah State-Kansas State, Chattanooga-Vanderbilt, Texas at Arlington-Texas Christian, North Carolina State-Richmond and Wake Forest-Nebraska.

N.C. State and Wake Forest pushed their scheduled Sept. 12 opener back to Nov. 14 to make room for new opponents.

Other schools to forego an 11th game, besides Texas and Penn State, include Notre Dame, Arizona State, Ohio U., Louisiana State, Tennessee, Syracuse and Washington.

Although the Southwest Conference, of which Texas is a member, approved an 11th game, the university acted on a recommendation by Darrell Royal, head coach and athletic director, in turning down an additional contest.

Royal and Joe Paterno, the Penn State coach, talked about the possibility of meeting this fall shortly after the NCAA approval. Both men were in Washington for the American Football Coaches Association's convention, held in conjunction with the NCAA meetings.

Nixon Message Gives Big Labor Little To Cheer

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — President Nixon has given labor leaders little encouragement in their demands that he ease up on anti-inflation policies which they say are hurting workers, consumers and the efforts of Negroes to better their lot.

"The workingman must know the dollar he earns is not being secretly eaten away by inflation even as he earns it," Nixon said Monday in a message to AFL-CIO leaders.

George Meany, 75-year-old president of the AFL-CIO, and other leaders talked pointedly, if politely, with Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz about their mounting differences with the White House.

All they got at the windup session of the council's winter meeting was Nixon's message urging their cooperation, and Shultz's oral assurance the President would take strong measures if his economic policies spur any big jobless rise.

"We don't think there is going to be any steep rise, any general rise, in unemployment at all," Shultz said.

Nixon's written message included without mention by either Shultz or the labor leaders in a sheaf of news releases handed to reporters—asked AFL-CIO cooperation in fighting inflation and providing training and jobs for all Americans.

Quoting Abraham Lincoln, Nixon said labor is the source of most human needs and comforts.

"The central social and economic questions of our time are: Can we as a free people make that source available to those who have been denied its use and can we maintain a stable economy that will enable all workers to purchase those comforts and necessities without the cruel, hidden tax of inflation," Nixon said.

"This administration says we must, and we can . . . It is as immoral to stop a man from getting a job for which he is qualified as it is to allow a worker to be robbed of his money by inflation."

The nation's jobless rate has risen from 3.3 to 3.9 per cent of the labor force, a level of some 3.4 million unemployed—since Nixon took office and Meany is predicting it could go as high as 6 per cent soon under federal policies to slow the nation's worst inflation in 20 years.

Despite her defense of the pill, another witness indicted it on a new count—that it can cause severe mental depression which he said may end in suicide.

Dr. John R. McCain, an Atlanta, Ga., obstetrician, said emotional or psychiatric problems presented "the most serious potential danger" of 16 major complications he has documented in 52 patients since 1964.

Dr. Philip Ball, a Muncie, Ind., specialist in internal medicine, said he stopped prescribing the pill four years ago after seeing numerous complications including "several near tragic examples of thromboembolism."

"But more than any other problems," he said, "I have seen women who are chronically tired, or depressed, or lacking in libido, or complaining of frequent migraine-like headaches, often of incapacitating nature."

Dr. Marvin J. Dodson, KEA executive secretary, called the teachers' response to the walk-out "very good."

Most of the schools which held classes were in sparsely populated rural areas of mid-Kentucky and the south-central and southeast parts of the state.

The teachers organization is asking the legislature for an extra $600 in annual pay over the next two years, a professional negotiations law and other fringe benefits.

The association says low salaries are causing teachers to leave Kentucky for other states. The average pay is $7,500 but the KEA says that figure includes administrators and teachers are averaging $7,125.

The shortest day of the year in the Northeastern Hemisphere, Dec. 21, has a period of daylight only a few days or shorter than the ten days so around that date.

Henry H. Mohaupt of Petroleum Tool Research of Pryor, Okla., said the explosive was 200 times more powerful than the average used in deep-well blasting. The average would be 100 quarts of nitroglycerine, Mohaupt said.

The explosive used in the mile deep blast was not disclosed.

Yablonski Jury Again In Session

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The federal grand jury investigating the Yablonski slayings opens its fourth week of hearings today still trying to determine who paid the alleged hired killers of United Mine Workers leader Joseph A. Yablonski, his wife and daughter.

Several UMW officials who were subpoenaed by the jury last week were ordered to come back this week.

James F. Kmetz, who succeeded Yablonski as director of the UMW's lobbying organization in Washington, D.C., was among those asked to return. The first national UMW official to be subpoenaed, Kmetz was on hand while other officials were being questioned last week but was not called before the jury.

Also called back was William J. Prater, UMW District 19 field representative who has already spent 6½ hours before the jury, and Albert Pass, secretary-treasurer of District 19, which covers parts of Kentucky and Tennessee. Pass spent about four hours on the stand Friday before the jury recessed for the holiday weekend.

Other officials asked to return were Kenneth Combs, assistant district secretary-treasurer, and Silous Huddleston, 61, a retired miner from LaFollette, Tenn., whose daughter, Annette Gilly, 29, is one of four persons indicted by the grand jury on charges of conspiring to kill Yablonski.

Others indicted on the charges and being held in lieu of bond of $250,000 each are Mrs. Gilly's husband, Paul E. Gilly, 36; Claude E. Veale, 26, and Aubran W. Martin, 21.

The four are charged also with first-degree murder in Pennsylvania in the Dec. 31 slayings at Yablonski's Clarksville, Pa., home.

Two other House bills were debated and sent back to committee.

One, requiring the use of safety glass in doors, went to the Judiciary Committee. The other, to permit the use of non-wrinkle synthetic fiber sheets in hotels, was returned to the Commerce and Labor Committee.

Rep. Ethel G. Swanbeck, R-14 Huron, sponsor of the sheet bill, sharply chided legislators for getting tied up twice in House debate over a minor bill. She called it a disgrace that the House and the legislature in general did not spend as much time on education and tax matters.

Senate majority whip Michael J. Maloney, R-Cincinnati, introduced a bill to set up a Department of Intergovernmental Relations under the lieutenant governor. The aim of the department, Maloney said, would be to breach the "communications gap among various levels of government."

Volunteer Dentist Shocked At Conditions In Slums

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Last summer Dr. Martin Rosenberg, a dentist, found he had some free time and wondered if the Negro community or the East Los Angeles barrio needed his talent.

He met with William Elkins, director of the 45 poverty program Teen Posts in Los Angeles County, and with the help of the American Jewish Committee came up with 75 volunteer dentists.

Since then more than 400 children, teen-agers and young adults from the black community and the Spanish-speaking barrio have been examined by Rosenberg and the other volunteers free of charge.

The dentists expressed shock at what they have found.

"I went down to a Teen Post and examined 75 youngsters in one evening," Rosenberg recalled Monday. "I found only six who didn't need dental care."

He found one girl, who had 13 cavities, three missing teeth, gum problems, flaring teeth and

Plan Building In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — City officials are considering a proposal made Monday to construct a $40 million complex, including 20 and 12-story buildings, on a block-long renewal site near the center of the downtown section.

The Western-Southern Life Insurance Co., which unveiled the plans, said the building would be carried out in two phases.

Its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Southern Ohio Bank, would locate its main office in the 12-story building which would also have an underground garage for 200 cars. Cost would run about $7 million.

The figure for the 20-story structure, which would house offices and retail stores, plus underground parking for 600 cars would be $21.5 million.

Western-Southern officials said that detailed architectural planning would begin soon on the first phase, the 12-story building.

Pilots Warn Of Walkout Over Bombings

NEW YORK (AP) — The president of the International Federation of Air Line Pilots' Associations has warned of a possible worldwide strike if efforts are not made to protect civilian planes.

Capt. Ola Forsberg said Monday that he would ask the United Nations and the airlines to guarantee an end to repeated incidents of terrorism against civil aviation.

"We feel that the United Nations is the only one that can get us the guarantees that these bombings will not happen again," he said in reference to recent explosions aboard Israel-bound jetliners.

problems in swallowing and speaking.

"A dental cripple," the dentist said. "It's tragic."

Of the first 310 youngsters examined, Rosenberg said, only about 18 did not need treatment.

"We also found a kind of problem that we weren't aware of," he said. "It's tongue twisting, improperly placing the tongue in speaking and swallowing. In private practice, I find it in 3 to 4 per cent of my patients; in the ghetto we found it is 15 per cent."

Rosenberg and other volunteer dentists have treated the most serious cases at their own offices.

Young Spurs Party Choice, Backs Stanton

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, spurned the Cuyahoga County Democratic party choice and announced his support of Cleveland City Council President James V. Stanton who is seeking the Democratic nomination for the congressional seat held by U.S. Rep. Michael A. Feighan, D-Ohio.

Young, in announcing his choice Monday, criticized Feighan's record in Congress and said the veteran congressman "still lives in the McCarthy era. He sees Communists under every bed."

Young also said he favored Cleveland insurance man John F. Kennedy for Ohio Secretary of State.

Earlier, the 81-year-old Young had endorsed Cleveland attorney and businessman Howard M. Metzgerbaum who is bidding for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate seat Young is vacating.

Race Tension Said Easing At Schools

CINCINNATI (AP) — Racial tension has eased at various Southwestern Ohio Schools including some Cincinnati public schools where officials are taking "strong measures" to avoid recurrences of disturbances.

Middletown High School had classes as usual Monday after being closed down all last week because of a racial disorder Feb. 13. "Everyone was great," Supt. Gene Lubera said.

Withrow High School in Cincinnati was scheduled to reopen today after closing down for three days last week as the result of racial trouble. Eighty-six Negro pupils who walked out of class Feb. 11 at suburban North College Hill High School planned to return today. They have been suspended.

Dr. Paul Miller, Cincinnati School superintendent, issued a statement Monday warning that outsiders who stir students to disruptions in schools will be punished on such charges as contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Teacher problems are bothering suburban Mount Healthy High School which closed down two hours early Monday.

Teachers refused to instruct any longer after Supt. Rex Ralph refused to rescind the suspension of Fred Doyle, one of two teachers involved in a slapping incident Friday. Officials said that Russell Hinkle slapped Doyle, Ralph said "It takes two to be involved."

Man Held In Kidnap

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—An alleged abduction by a 30-year-old Youngstown man was thwarted Monday when 11-year-old Jeff Reilly disabled the man's car.

The boy did it by reaching under the back seat of the small, foreign-made car and pulling out a handful of wires, thereby disconnecting the battery.

The stalled car attracted the attention of a policeman in Mill Creek Park, and Jeff and his brother, Timothy, 6, were freed after being held for 11 hours.

Park Patrolman Daryl Wrench stopped to help, then heard Jeff say the man was not their father and was armed with a knife. Wrench confiscated the knife.

The man, who has an arrest record and has spent time in Lima State Hospital, was held for questioning at city jail.

Shopping Spree Costly For Man

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A suburban Maple Heights man has been arrested for a Sunday shopping spree.

Ronald G. Urbassik, 29, was charged with grand larceny in connection with taking movie projectors, razors, steelware and a percolator during his shift as a part-time watchman at the Higbee Co. downtown store on Sunday.

Urbassik, a full-time computer operator for a bank, was arrested by two store security guards who were alerted because merchandise reportedly had been missing after Urbassik's regular Sunday morning shift.

Nixon Message Gives Big Labor Little To Cheer

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — President Nixon has given labor leaders little encouragement in their demands that he ease up on anti-inflation policies which they say are hurting workers, consumers and the efforts of Negroes to better their lot.

"The workingman must know the dollar he earns is not being secretly eaten away by inflation even as he earns it," Nixon said Monday in a message to AFL-CIO leaders.

"The result of these few attempts to slow down the economy is higher unemployment," retorted a report of the 13.6 million member labor federation's executive council. And, it added, the hardest hit are hard-core unemployed Negroes and other minority group workers.

George Meany, 75-year-old

president of the AFL-CIO, and other leaders talked pointedly, if politely, with Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz about their mounting differences with the White House.

All they got at the windup session of the council's winter meeting was Nixon's message urging their cooperation, and Shultz's oral assurance the President would take strong measures if his economic policies spur any big jobless rise.

"We don't think there is going to be any steep rise, any general rise, in unemployment at all," Shultz said.

Nixon's written message—incorporated without mention by either Shultz or the labor leaders in a sheaf of news releases handed to reporters—asked AFL-CIO cooperation in fighting inflation and providing training and jobs for all Americans.

Quoting Abraham Lincoln, Nixon said labor is the source of most human needs and comforts.

"The central social and economic questions of our time are: Can we as a free people make that source available to those who have been denied its use and can we maintain a stable economy that will enable all workers to purchase those comforts and necessities without the cruel, hidden tax of inflation," Nixon said.

"This administration says we must, and we can... It is as immoral to stop a man from getting a job for which he is qualified as it is to allow a worker to be robbed of his money by inflation."

The nation's jobless rate has risen from 3.3 to 3.9 per cent of the labor force, a level of some 3.4 million unemployed—since Nixon took office and Meany is predicting it could go as high as 6 per cent soon under federal policies to slow the nation's worst inflation in 20 years.

Despite her defense of the pill, another witness indicted it on a new count—that it can cause severe mental depression which he said may end in suicide.

Dr. John R. McCain, an Atlanta, Ga., obstetrician, said emotional or psychiatric problems presented "the most serious potential danger" of 16 major complications he has documented in 52 patients since 1964.

Dr. Philip Ball, a Muncie, Ind., specialist in internal medicine, said he stopped prescribing the pill four years ago after seeing numerous complications including "several near tragic examples of thromboembolism."

"But more than any other problems," he said, "I have seen women who are chronically tired, or depressed, or lacking in libido, or complaining of frequent migraine-like headaches, often of incapacitating nature."

Blast Set Off In Deep Well

MAGNOLIA, Ohio (AP) — A tremendous blast, equal to 30 tons of TNT, was set off in a Carroll County oil well Monday in an experiment which is hoped will increase production.

The underground explosion, aimed at fracturing rocks deep inside the well, sent a column of oil and water shooting more than 100 feet into the air.

The explosive used in the mile deep blast was not disclosed.

Henry H. Mohaupt of Petroleum Tool Research of Pryor, Okla., said the explosive was 200 times more powerful than the average used in deep-well blasting. The average would be 100 quarts of nitroglycerine, Mohaupt said.

Petroleum Tool is working on a research program with MB Oil & Gas Co. of Canton, Ohio, and Prudent Resources Trust of Long Island, N.Y.

Kentucky Teachers On Strike

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — About 60 per cent of the state's public school districts were closed in the first day of a teachers' strike and the Kentucky Education Association predicted other teachers would join the fight today for higher pay.

The Association said about 24,000 of Kentucky's 32,000 teachers did not report to work Monday, closing about 118 of the 193 school districts. State education officials made roughly the same estimate of the strike's effect.

Officials said they did not have figures for the number of schools or pupils affected by the strike.

Dr. Marvin J. Dodson, KEA executive secretary, called the teachers' response to the walk-out "very good."

Most of the schools which held classes were in sparsely populated rural areas of mid-Kentucky and the south-central and southeast parts of the state.

The teachers organization is asking the legislature for an extra $600 in annual pay over the next two years, a professional negotiations law and other fringe benefits.

The association says low salaries are causing teachers to leave Kentucky for other states. The average pay is $7,500 but the KEA says that figure includes administrators and teachers are averaging $7,125.
